Act, No. 40 of 1985*

[Certified on 22nd October, 1985]

L.D.—O. 39/85

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A COMPETENT AUTHORITY FOR MANPOWER MOBILIZATION ; FOR SETTING OUT THE PROCEDURE REGARDING OBLIGATORY AND VOLUNTARY ENLISTMENT IN THE NATIONAL ARMED RESERVE ; FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A RESERVE AFFAIRS COUNCIL ; FOR PROVIDING FOR THE RAISING AND MAINTAINING OF THE NATIONAL ARMED RESERVE, THE NATIONAL CADET CORPS, THE NATIONAL AUXILIARY FORCE AND OF SUCH OTHER SUPPLEMENTARY FORCES AS ARE DEEMED NECESSARY ; AND FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the Mobilization and Supplementary Forces Act, No. 40 of 1985. Short title.

PART I

APPOINTMENT OF COMPETENT AUTHORITY

2. The President shall in consultation with the Minister appoint, by name or by office, a fit and proper person to be the Competent Authority for Manpower Mobilization (hereinafter referred to as “the Authority”). Appointment of Competent Authority.

3. (1) The Authority shall exercise, perform and discharge such powers, duties and functions as are assigned to him under any of the provisions of this Act. Assignment of powers, duties and functions
to the Authority.

(2) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, delegate any of the powers, duties and functions conferred or imposed on, or assigned to, him under this Act to any other public officer.

(3) In this Part of this Act, “Minister” means the Minister in charge of the subject and function of manpower mobilization and training.

PART II

NATIONAL SERVICE AND VOLUNTARY SERVICE IN THE NATIONAL ARMED RESERVEEnlistment in National Armed Reserve.

4. (1) All relevant persons falling within any category of persons specified in an Order made by the Minister and known as "A National Service Order" shall enlist when directed so to do, by the Authority, in the interest of the security needs of the country, in the National Armed Reserve, in accordance with the provisions contained in this Act.

(2) The Authority may from time to time, by notice, require any person to whom a National Service Order applies, to report for a selection examination for enlistment. Every person so noticed shall comply with the notice. Every person required to report, shall report at such office and at such date and time as is specified in the notice and shall attend from day to day or at such other times as he is required by the officer, until the selection examinations for enlistment are finalized.

(3) A person noticed under subsection (2) and who passes the selection examination, shall when directed by the Authority, enlist in the National Armed Reserve in accordance with the prescribed procedure.

(4) A release from enlisting in the National Armed Reserve, of a person who has qualified for enlistment, may be granted by the Authority taking into consideration the security needs of the country. The Authority may require any person so released to enlist in the National Armed Reserve, within a period of two years from the date of such release :

Provided that any person granted a release under the provisions of this subsection, and not subject to a direction thereunder, shall be liable for national service if he falls within any category specified in a subsequent National Service Order.

(5) The National Service Order shall specify the grounds on which the releases from national service may be granted by the Authority, to persons who are qualified for enlistment in the National Armed Reserve.

(6) Every person to whom a notice under subsection (2) applies shall furnish the Authority with all such information as is required by the Authority, to facilitate the enlistment of such person in the National Armed Reserve.

For the purposes of this section "relevant person" means any citizen of Sri Lanka, who is not below the age of eighteen years.

5. The Authority may with the approval of the Minister, by notification published in the Gazette, invite persons other than those persons to whom a National Service Order is applicable, and who are not below the age of eighteen years to render voluntary service in the National Armed Reserve. The manner of selection of the category of persons to whom the provisions of this section shall apply, shall be prescribed.

(1) Every employer who has had in his employment a person for a continuous period of at least six months immediately preceding the day on which that person was ordered to report for initial service, reserve service or mobilized service, shall continue to employ or reinstate that person in his employment, as the case may be, at the termination of such service.

Right to return to previous employment at end of period of service.

(2) Every employer shall pay, in respect of every employee who reports for initial service, reserve service or mobilized service, during the period which such employee is performing such service, the salary, emoluments and allowances of such employee (including all such contributions as the employer is required, by or under any written law, to pay in respect of such employee). The State shall refund to the employer the salary, emoluments, allowances and contributions made by such employer, to or in respect of, such employee during such period.

(3) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to an employer, if the person whom he has had in his employment, and who was called up for initial service, reserve service or mobilized service, would have remained in that employment only for a contracted period of time, had such person not performed initial service, reserve service or mobilized service.

(4) Where a person is re-employed under subsection (1), the employer shall in so far as it is practicable, employ him on such terms and conditions, as are not less favourable than those which would have been applicable to him, had he not been so called out on initial service, reserve service or mobilized service.

(5) Any employer who fails to comply with the preceding provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction after summary trial to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees or to both such imprisonment and fine, and the court by which he is convicted may order the employer to pay to the person whom he has failed to employ, a sum not exceeding an amount equal to three months remuneration at the rate which remuneration was last payable to him by the employer.

(6) In a prosecution under subsection (5), a certificate setting out the manner in which the accused has failed to comply with the provisions of this section, under the hand of the Authority shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Employer has no right to dismiss when called up for active service.

23. (1) No employer shall dismiss a person solely or mainly by reason of any duties or liabilities which that person is, or may become liable to perform or discharge by reason of his being, or being liable to be, called up for active service under this Act, unless the person so called up for active service is employed only for a contracted period of time.

(2) For the purpose of this section, where it is proved that the duties or liabilities to which a person is liable under this Act, caused or contributed to the dismissal of that person, he shall be deemed to have been dismissed by reason of those duties or liabilities, unless the employer proves that the dismissal was for a reason unconnected therewith.

(3) Any employer who dismisses a member of the Reserve, by reason of his duties and liabilities as a member of the Reserve, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction after summary trial to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees or to both such imprisonment and fine, and the court by which he is convicted may order the employer to pay, to the dismissed person as compensation, a sum not exceeding an amount equal to three months remuneration at the rate which remuneration was last payable to him by the employer.

24. Any member of the armed forces or the police force may be seconded for service in the Reserve in accordance with such conditions of service as may be specified in that behalf.
