and date of operation.

PART I

CONSTITUTION, OBJECTS, POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF PLANTATION MANAGEMENT

2. (1) There shall be established an Institute which shall be called the “National Institute of Plantation Management” (hereinafter referred to as the “Institute”), which shall consist of the persons who are for the time being members of the Institute under section 6.

Establishment of the National Institute of Plantation Management.

(2) The Institute shall by the name assigned to it by subsection (1) be a body corporate and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(3) The members of the Board of Governors shall be the members of the Institute.

3. (1) The general objects of the Institute shall be—

General objects of the Institute.

- (a) to provide, by itself or in association with other institutions in Sri Lanka or abroad, training facilities and programmes relating to plantation management to all categories of employees working in the plantations ;
- (b) to provide regular refresher and orientation courses in Plantation Management to employees in service ;
- (c) to offer training in Plantation Management to personnel working in the plantations both in the public sector as well as in the private sector ;

(d) to provide Diploma Courses in association with the Tea Research Institute, the Rubber Research Institute, the Coconut Research Institute and other related institutions and to award Diplomas where appropriate ;

(e) to sponsor and hold seminars, workshops and conferences and publish journals and magazines in connection with plantation management and development ; and

(f) to carry out research into areas of plantation management and labour relations that are not already provided for in other similar institutions.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Institute to advise the Minister on any or all of the matters referred to in subsection (1) and on any other matter that may be referred to the Institute for advice by the Minister.

Powers of the Institute.

4. The Institute shall have such powers, rights and functions as may reasonably be necessary to carry out its objects and duties and in particular may—

(a) acquire in any manner and hold, take or give on lease or hire, mortgage, pledge, sell or otherwise dispose of, any movable or immovable property ;

(b) acquire, establish, instal and operate field training centres and pilot projects relating to plantation research ;

(c) import plant, machinery and equipment required for the purpose of the Institute and receive equipment, funds, personnel and any other assistance for the efficient conduct of the Institute ;

(d) conduct, assist, co-ordinate and encourage research into all aspects of plantation development ;

(e) levy fees or charges for any services rendered by the Institute ;

(f) appoint, employ, remunerate and exercise disciplinary control over its officers and servants ;

(g) establish and maintain provident funds and provide welfare and recreational facilities for its employees ;

(h) make rules in respect of the administration of the affairs of the Institute ; and

Act, No. 45 of 1979

- (i) delegate to any member, the Director of the Institute, or any employee such functions as the Board of Governors may consider necessary for the efficient transaction of its business.

5. In the exercise of its powers and the carrying out of its objects, the Institute shall comply with the general policy of the Government in relation to plantation and lands and with any general or special direction issued by the Minister in relation to such policy.

Institute to exercise its powers under the directions of the Minister.

6. (1) The Institute shall have a Board of Governors (hereinafter referred to as the "Board") consisting of—

Constitution of the Board of Governors.
