PART V

GENERAL

20. (1) The Council may in writing and subject to such conditions as may be specified therein, delegate to the Commissioner-General the powers, duties and functions conferred on the Council under paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) of section 16 and subsection (2) of section 19 and the Commissioner-General shall exercise, perform and discharge such powers, duties and functions in the name and on behalf of the Council. Delegation of the powers of the Council

(2) The Council may, notwithstanding any delegation made under subsection (1), by itself exercise, perform or discharge any power, duty or function so delegated and may at any time revoke any such delegation.

Protection of officers of the Bureau from suit or prosecution

21. (1) A liability, whether civil or criminal, shall not be attached to any officer of the Bureau or to any officer authorised by such officer, for anything which in good faith is done in the exercise, performance or discharge of any power, duty or function imposed or conferred on the Bureau under this Act.

(2) Any expense incurred by the Bureau in any suit or prosecution brought by or against the Bureau before any court shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, and any costs paid to, or recovered by, the Bureau in any such suit or prosecution shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund.

(3) Any expense incurred by any such person in any suit or prosecution brought against him before any court in respect of any act which is done or purported to be done by him under this Act or any appropriate instrument, or on the direction of the Bureau, shall, if the court holds that the act was done in good faith, be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, unless such expense is recovered by him in such suit or prosecution.

Centres for Rehabilitation

22. (1) For the purposes of this Act, the Minister may, by Order published in the Gazette, establish Centres for Rehabilitation for the treatment and rehabilitation of drug dependant persons and such persons who are identified by law and whose rehabilitation is provided for by law:

Provided, the Treatment Centres established under this Act to provide treatment and rehabilitation to drug dependant persons shall be published in the Gazette under the provisions of section 2 of the Drug Dependancy Persons (Treatment and Rehabilitation) Act, No. 54 of 2007 and shall be subjected to the provisions of that Act.

(2) It shall be the duty of every Magistrate to visit every Centre for Rehabilitation situated within the judicial division in respect of which he is appointed, at least once in every month to ensure that the persons undergoing rehabilitation at the Centre are protected to the extent provided for in the Convention Against Torture and other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment Act, No. 22 of 1994.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Magistrate who visits the Centre for Rehabilitation shall-

- (a) personally see the person undergoing rehabilitation, and look into his well-being, welfare and conditions under which such person is kept at such Centre and may examine the records and log books maintained at the Centre; and
- (b) record his observations and any complaint the person undergoing rehabilitation may make.

(4) Where the Magistrate is of the opinion, that the persons undergoing rehabilitation may have been subjected to torture, the Magistrate may direct that the person undergoing rehabilitation be produced before a Judicial Medical Officer or a Government Medical Officer for medical examination, and a report be submitted by such Medical Officer to the Magistrate.

(5) Where the report of such Medical Officer reveals that the person undergoing rehabilitation has been subjected to torture, the Magistrate shall make an appropriate order including an order that such person be immediately admitted to a Government hospital for medical treatment and that the officer-in-charge of such Centre immediately inform the court that made the order for the rehabilitation of such person of the findings of the Government Medical Officer.

(6) The Magistrate shall also direct the Inspector General of Police to commence an investigation into the alleged torture in order to enable the Attorney-General to institute criminal proceedings against the person who is alleged to have committed the torture.

(7) The Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka may on its own volition or on a complaint received, visit every Centre to ensure that the rights of the persons undergoing rehabilitation at the Centre are protected to the extent provided by law, and make appropriate recommendations in terms of the Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka Act, No. 21 of 1996.

Apprehension of persons escaping

(2) It shall be the duty of any person employed in a Centre for Rehabilitation to preserve order and discipline among the persons undergoing rehabilitation in the Centre and for such purpose it shall be lawful for such person to use minimum force as may reasonably be necessary to compel obedience to any lawful directions given by him.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Commissioner-General of Rehabilitation, or a person duly authorised by him to immediately inform the Magistrate within the judicial division in which such Centre is located of any exercise of powers under subsections (1) and (2).

Penalties for contraventions for which no specific provisions have been made

28. Where any person contravenes any provision of this Act or any regulation made thereunder and no penalty has been specified under this Act in respect of such contravention, such person shall, on conviction after summary trial by a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Database

29. (1) The Bureau shall create, manage and maintain a database which will include all particulars of the rehabilitees. Such database shall also include details of previous rehabilitation assistance that each rehabilitee may have received from any other State Authority or agency, details relating to the rehabilitation that a person has undergone as part of the rehabilitation process and any other matter as may be prescribed by regulations.

(2) The Bureau shall take all necessary steps including technical safeguards to ensure the security of all its databases and data.

Bureau deemed to be a Scheduled Institution within the meaning of the Bribery Act

30. The Bureau shall be deemed to be a Scheduled Institution within the meaning of the Bribery Act (Chapter 26) and the provisions of that Act shall be construed accordingly.

- 31. All members of the Council, the Commissioner-General and all officers and employees of the Bureau shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning and for the purposes of the Penal Code (Chapter 19).
- 32. The Minister may from time to time issue to the Council general or special directions as to the exercise, performance and discharge of the powers, duties and functions of the Council.
- 33. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Council may make rules in respect of all or any of the following matters:-
- (a) all matters for which rules are authorised or required to be made under this Act;
  - (b) the meetings of the Council and the procedure to be followed at such meeting;
  - (c) the appointment, promotion, remuneration and disciplinary control of officers and employees and the grant of leave and other emoluments to officers and employees; and
  - (d) any matter connected with the affairs of the Bureau:
- Provided that, the Council shall not have the power to make rules in respect of any matter for which regulations are required to be made in terms of this Act.
- (2) Every rule made by the Bureau shall be approved by the Minister and published in the Gazette and shall come into operation on the date of its publication or on such later date as may be specified therein.
- 34. (1) The Minister may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out and giving effect to the provisions of this Act.
