of decree.

46. No decree in any hypothecary action upon any mortgage of land which is created after the coming into force of this section, and no decree in any action for the recovery of any moneys due upon any such mortgage, shall order any property, whatsoever, other than the mortgaged property to be sold for the recovery of any money found to be due under the mortgage, and no property whatsoever, other than the mortgaged property, shall be sold or be liable to be sold in execution of any such decree.

In this section “action for the recovery of moneys due upon a mortgage” includes any action for the recovery of any debt secured by a mortgage whether the cause of action sued upon arises by reason of the mortgage or otherwise.’

3. The following new section is inserted immediately after section 47 and shall have effect as section 47A of the principal enactment:—

- (a) a special declaration on the part of the mortgagor that he renounces the benefit of section 46 and that the effect of such renunciation has been explained to him by the notary; and
- (b) an endorsement signed by the notary to the effect that he has explained to the mortgagor the effect of such renunciation, then, in addition to the mortgaged property, any other property belonging to the mortgagor shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), be liable to be ordered to be sold and to be sold under the decree in an action upon the mortgage, and the provisions of section 218 of the Civil Procedure Code (Chapter 101) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the seizure and sale of such other property.

(2) In any case referred to in subsection (1), no process shall issue for the seizure and sale of any property of the mortgagor, other than the mortgaged property, until the mortgaged property is sold and the proceeds thereof applied in satisfaction of the decree.

(3) Where the separate instrument referred to in subsection (1) is to be executed by any mortgagor, it shall be the duty of the notary to explain to the mortgagor, that the instrument provides for the renunciation of the benefit of section 46 and that the effect of such renunciation is that, in addition to the mortgaged property, other property of the mortgagor is liable to be sold in execution of a decree in an action upon the mortgage.

(4) No stamp duty shall be payable upon the further instrument referred to in this section.

Possession.

62B. (1) Where bank or an institution is empowered to authorise any person to enter into possession of or to maintain and to manage the property mortgaged and such person is unable or apprehends that he will be unable to take possession of that land because of any obstruction or resistance which has been or is likely to be offered, such officer shall, on his making an application in that behalf to the Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction over the place where that land is situated, be entitled to an order of that court directing the Fiscal to deliver possession of the land to him.

(2) Where an order under subsection (1) is issued to the Fiscal by a Magistrate's Court he shall forthwith execute such order and shall in writing report to that Court the manner in which the order was executed.

rights of the purchaser, and the purchaser shall not be entitled to an order for delivery of possession of such immovable property.
