L. D.—O. 9/63

AN ACT TO AMEND THE IRRIGATION ORDINANCE.

Chapter 453,
Vol. XII,
page 731.

[Date of Assent: December 14, 1968]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Ceylon in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the Irrigation (Amendment) Act, No 48 of 1968, and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may appoint by Order published in the Gazette.

Short title and date of operation.

2. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 1 of the Irrigation Ordinance, hereinafter referred to as the "principal enactment", and shall have effect as section 1A of the principal enactment:—

Insertion of new section 1A
in Chapter 453.

" Powers and duties of Commissioner.

1A. (1) The Commissioner shall be responsible for the general supervision and control of Government Agents in the exercise and discharge of the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon them by this Ordinance.

(2) The Commissioner may from time to time give general or special directions to a Government Agent as to the performance of his duties relating to the administration of this Ordinance and may direct or authorize any question of doubt or difficulty in connection with such duties to be referred to the Commissioner for decision.

(3) Any direction or decision of the Commissioner shall be observed and given effect to by the Government Agent concerned.

(4) In the exercise of his powers and in the discharge of his duties under this Ordinance, the Commissioner shall be subject to the general direction and control of the Minister."

2 Irrigation (Amendment) Act, No. 48 of 1968

Amendment of section 2 of the principal enactment.

3. Section 2 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:—

- (1) in sub-section (1) of that section, by the substitution, for the words “such matters in combination.”, of the words “such matters in combination:

Provided that, with reference to any extent of paddy land in respect of which there is a tenant cultivator, the irrigation rate shall be payable by him instead of the proprietor, and with reference to any extent of paddy land in respect of which there is an allottee or tenant cultivator, the irrigation rate shall be deemed to be a charge in favour of the Crown imposed not upon the land but upon such allottee or tenant cultivator in respect of water supplied, or to be supplied, to such extent of paddy land or in respect of the cost of or incidental to, the construction or maintenance of any major irrigation work benefiting or intended to benefit, such extent of paddy land, or of all or any of such matters in combination.”;

- (2) by the repeal of sub-sections (2) and (3) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following new sub-sections:—

“(2) Any charge referred to in sub-section (1) may be imposed by the Government Agent whether by way of provision in the scheme of a major irrigation work or otherwise, and may be varied by him from time to time:

Provided, however, that any charge imposed upon an extent of land in respect of which there is an allottee or tenant cultivator shall be deemed to be imposed upon such allottee or tenant cultivator; and

Provided, further, that in respect of any major irrigation work any existing charge imposed—

(a) by the instrument under which the land was granted, leased, held or occupied, or

(b) by express agreement between the Crown and the owner, lessee, tenant or occupier of the land, or

(c) by resolution of the majority of the proprietors of the irrigable area or tract in which the land is comprised, or

(d) by any other method by which an irrigation rate may have been duly imposed, shall be deemed to be the charge imposed by the Government Agent.

(3) Any charge referred to in sub-section (1) may be either conditional or unconditional, and may be either for a fixed amount, or may be subject to estimate, measurement or variation.”; and

(3) in sub-section (4) of that section, by the substitution, for the words “referred to in sub-section (1)”, of the words “referred to in sub-section (1) with reference to land other than land in respect of which there is an allottee or tenant cultivator”.

4. Section 6 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor:—

Replacement of section 6 of the principal enactment.

“ Advisory committees in respect of major irrigation works.

6. (1) In respect of every major irrigation work there shall be an advisory committee consisting of—

(a) the Government Agent, who shall be the chairman,

(b) the presidents of the Cultivation Committees in the area benefited by the irrigation work,

(c) a representative appointed by each of the following officers:—

(i) the Director of Irrigation,

(ii) the Land Commissioner,

(iii) the Commissioner of Agrarian Services,

(iv) the Director of Agriculture, and

(v) the Commissioner of Co-operative Development,

(d) the Divisional Revenue Officer,
and

(e) not less than three and not more than five tenant cultivators, owner-cultivators and allottees under the Land Development Ordinance nominated by the Cultivation Committees concerned.

(2) It shall be the duty of the advisory committee to advise the Government Agent on all matters connected with irrigation and paddy cultivation within the major irrigation work.

(3) The Government Agent shall summon a meeting of the advisory committee as often as may be necessary and in any case at the commencement of each cultivation season.”.

Repeal of sections 7 to 10 of the principal enactment.

5. Sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the principal enactment are hereby repealed.

Replacement of section 11 of the principal enactment.

6. Section 11 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor:—

“ Powers of Cultivation Committee and of allottees, tenant cultivators and proprietors.

11. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), the Cultivation Committee in respect of any irrigable area or tract shall have power to make rules for all or any of the following purposes:—

(a) the encouragement, extension, regulation, or management of paddy cultivation or any other form of cultivation which is capable of being benefited by an irrigation work;

(b) the enforcement of established customs affecting such cultivation;

(c) subject to the direction and control of the Government Agent, the appointment of agents and the regulation of their powers, duties, remuneration and duration of office;

(d) the regulation and assessment of the contributions of labour to be made by persons for the purposes of works for the construction or maintenance of which they are, in whole or in part, responsible, and for the payment of money by way of commutation of the liability to make such contributions; and

(e) the maintenance, conservation, protection or management of the works referred to in paragraph (d).

(2) Rules made under this section may include rules making provision for the form of cultivation known as betma cultivation.

(3) No rules shall be made under this section for any purpose for which regulations have been made under section 64.

(4) Where any irrigable area or tract falls within the area of jurisdiction of more than one Cultivation Committee, the rules for any one or all of the purposes referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be made at a joint meeting of all such Cultivation Committees. The constitution of such joint meeting and the procedure to be followed therein shall be in accordance with regulations made under section 117.

(5) At a meeting of the allottees and the tenant cultivators, and where there are no allottees or tenant cultivators of any lands the proprietors of those lands, within any irrigable area or tract, a majority of those present at such meeting shall have power—

(a) by resolution to amend or rescind any resolution passed or deemed to be passed under this Ordinance, or to correct any irregularity, informality or defect in any proceeding at any earlier meeting of the proprietors or allottees, tenant cultivators and proprietors of that area or tract,

(b) to decide upon or otherwise deal with any question arising in connection with or in the operation of any scheme under this Ordinance, or any resolution passed at any meeting of allottees, tenant cultivators and proprietors under this Ordinance or at any meeting of proprietors under this Ordinance or under any previous Irrigation Ordinance, which may be referred to them by the Minister or the Government Agent, and

(c) to decide, before the commencement of the cultivation season, and subject to the approval of the Government Agent, such matters pertaining to cultivation as—

(i) the dates of the commencement of cultivation operations including ploughing, sowing and reaping, and

(ii) arrangements for the annual maintenance of irrigation works, and any other matters relating to the execution of rules made under sub-sections (1) and (2).

(6) Where, at a meeting referred to in sub-section (5), a decision under paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of that sub-section has not been arrived at whether for want of a quorum or any other cause, the power to make such decision shall be exercised by the Government Agent. ”.

7. Section 12 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendment of section 12 of the principal enactment.

- (1) by the substitution, for all the words from “ At a meeting of the proprietors ” to “ any of the following purposes ”, of the following words:—

Part IV of the principal enactment.

16. Part IV of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new heading and the following new sections, which shall have effect as sections 23, 24 and 25 of the principal enactment, are substituted therefor:—

“ PART IV.

CULTIVATION COMMITTEES AND THEIR AGENTS.

Duties of
Cultivation
Committees.

23. (1) A Cultivation Committee shall, within the area of its jurisdiction—

- (a) attend to all matters connected with the irrigation and cultivation of land and the preservation of rights and the maintenance of irrigation works connected therewith, and

- (b) prevent, as far as practicable, any act or omission which is contrary to any rules or regulations in force under this Ordinance or to establish customs relating to irrigation or cultivation, or whereby damage may be caused to any of the allottees, tenant cultivators or proprietors.

(2) Where within the area of its jurisdiction, any act is committed or any omission made which is contrary to any established custom or any rule or regulation relating to irrigation or cultivation, or whereby any damage may be caused to any allottee, tenant cultivator or proprietor, the Cultivation Committee shall, if the act or omission be of such a nature as to call for prompt action to prevent damage, take such steps as may be necessary in the circumstances, and shall forthwith report the matter to the Government Agent.

(3) No action taken by a Cultivation Committee under sub-section (2) shall be deemed to preclude an investigation, under the provisions of Part VIII, into the act or omission in consequence of which such action has been taken.

Cultivation
Committee
agents.

24. (1) It shall be lawful for a Cultivation Committee to delegate, subject to the direction and control of the Government Agent and subject to its own direction and control, any or all of its duties under section 23 to one or more Cultivation Committee agents.

(2) The Government Agent may at any time direct any Cultivation Committee to discontinue the services of any Cultivation Committee agent who is guilty of misconduct or neglect of duty or who has been convicted of an offence which in the opinion of the Government Agent disqualifies such Cultivation Committee agent from holding office, and the Cultivation Committee shall take action accordingly.

(3) Where a Cultivation Committee fails to comply with a direction of the Government Agent under sub-section (2), he shall report such failure to the Commissioner for action under section 38 of the Paddy Lands Act, No. 1 of 1958.

Mode of recovering expenditure incurred by Cultivation Committees and their agents.

25. (1) Where a Cultivation Committee acting under section 23, or Cultivation Committee agent acting under sections 23 and 24, or an officer acting in pursuance of any regulation made under Part VI, incurs any expenditure in the execution of its or his duty, and the person in consequence of whose act or omission such expenditure was incurred denies his liability to pay the amount incurred, or fails to pay such amount, the Government Agent may, on his being satisfied that such expenditure was properly incurred, and that it is reasonable, sign a certificate setting out the name of the person in consequence of whose act or omission such expenditure was incurred, the amount thereof, the nature of the act or omission, and the name of the Cultivation Committee or agent or officer by whom the expenditure was incurred, and cause such certificate to be delivered to such person.

(2) Where any person to whom a certificate referred to in sub-section (1) has been delivered fails to pay the amount due from him within ten days from the delivery to him of the certificate, the Government Agent may proceed to recover such amount in the manner provided in section 78 or section 78A, as the case may be. ”.

17. Section 33 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:—

- (1) by the renumbering of that section as sub-section (1) of that section;
