Excise (Special Provisions) (Amendment)
Act, No. 40 of 1990

[Certified on 20th November, 1990]

L.D.—O. 22/90

AN ACT TO AMEND THE EXCISE (SPECIAL PROVISIONS)
ACT, No. 13 OF 1989

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Excise (Special Provisions) (Amendment) Act, No. 40 of 1990.

Short title.

2. Section 2 of the Excise (Special Provisions) Act, No. 13 of 1989 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal enactment”) is hereby amended by the repeal of paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of that section and the substitution of the following paragraphs therefor:—

Amendment of section 2 of Act, No. 13 of 1989.

“ (b) a Director of Excise and such number of Deputy Directors, Assistant Directors, Superintendents, Chief Inspectors, Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors who shall be excise officers, as may be necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this Act; and

(c) such number of administrative, accounting, technical and clerical officers and minor staff as may be necessary to assist the aforesaid officers.”.

3. The following new sections are hereby inserted immediately after section 3 of the principal enactment, and shall have effect as sections 3A and 3B, of that enactment:—

Insertion of new sections 3A and 3B in the principal enactment.

“Exemption of any representative &c., in Sri Lanka of the Government of any foreign country from payment of excise duty.

3A (1) The Minister may from time to time, by Order published in the Gazette exempt the representative in Sri Lanka (by whatsoever name, title or designation called) of the Government of any foreign state or the Trade Commissioner in Sri Lanka of any such Government and the persons on the staff of any such representative or Commissioner of the United Nations, its affiliated Organizations, Institutions or bodies, or the representatives of International Organizations, Institutions or bodies, named in such Order from payment of excise duty on excisable articles consigned to, or imported or cleared out of Customs bond by or for the use of such representative, Commissioner or persons, of foreign States.

(2) The Minister may, in his discretion by such Order—

(a) prescribe the conditions, if any, subject to which the exemption is allowed;

(b) extend such exemption to excisable articles consigned to, or imported by or for the use of, the families and suites of such representatives, Commissioners or persons of foreign States:

(c) limit the exemption to representatives, Commissioners or persons of any specified country, grade or class or to excisable articles of any specified description.

(3) The Minister may at his discretion, by Order published in the Gazette, withdraw or modify any exemption granted under this section, or vary the conditions subject to which the exemption is allowed.

(4) Every Order made by the Minister under subsection (1) shall come into force on the date of its publication in the Gazette or on such later date as may be specified in such Order and shall be brought before Parliament within a period of three months from the date of its publication in the Gazette or, if no meeting of Parliament is held within such period, at the first meeting of Parliament held after the expiry of such period, by a motion that such Order be approved.

(5) Any Order which Parliament refuses to approve shall, with effect from the date of such refusal be deemed to be revoked but without prejudice to the validity of any thing done thereunder, and the notification of the date on which such Order is deemed to be revoked shall be published in the Gazette.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in any Order under the preceding provisions of this section no excisable article to which such Order applies may be sold or otherwise disposed of, without the prior permission of the Director-General and unless the excise duty payable on such excisable article at the time of such sale or disposal is paid to the Director-General. Any excisable article sold or disposed of in contravention of the preceding provisions of this subsection shall be liable to be forfeited.

Exemption of certain articles from payment of excise duty.

3B. The following articles shall be exempted from the payment of excise duty :—

- (a) articles of every description, imported or cleared from customs bond for the official use of the President ; and
- (b) articles of every description purchased or procured from a Custom Duty Free Shop.”.

4. Section 4 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :—

Replacement of section 4 of the principal
enactment.

“Notification of removal.

4. (1) Where the manufacturer of any excisable articles removes or causes the removal of any quantity of such excisable articles from the factory or other place at which such excisable articles were produced or manufactured, he shall before the expiry of three months from the date of such removal, give notice thereof to the Director-General or an excise officer designated by the Director-General for that purpose.

(2) Where the importer of any excisable articles removes or causes the removal of any quantity of such excisable articles from the customs warehouse or such other place as is authorized by the Director-General of Customs at which such excisable articles were stored after their import, he shall before the expiry of three months from the date of such removal give notice thereof to the Director-General or an excise officer designated by the Director-General for the purpose.”.

Amendment
of section 5 of the principal
enactment.

5. Section 5 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) by the repeal of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following paragraphs:—

“(a) in any case where such excisable article has been produced or manufactured in Sri Lanka, be paid by the producer or manufacturer of that excisable article, in the prescribed manner, after its removal from the factory or other place in which such excisable article was produced or manufactured and such duty shall be paid within one calendar month from the last date of each quarter in the year in which such removal takes place; or

(b) in any case where such excisable article was imported into Sri Lanka, be paid by the importer of such excisable article in the prescribed manner after its removal from the Customs warehouse or other place at which such excisable article was stored immediately after its importation into Sri Lanka and such duty shall be paid within one calendar month from the last date of each quarter in the year in which such import takes place.”.

(2) by the repeal of subsection (2) of that section, and the substitution of the following subsections therefor:—

“(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, every person who imports any excisable article manufactured outside Sri Lanka (not being an exempted article within the meaning of sections 3A and 3B) shall pay to the Director-General of Customs, excise duty in part in respect of his import on the cost, insurance and freight value of such article determined under the Customs Ordinance, prior to its removal from the customs warehouse or such other place at which such excisable article is stored, at the rates of excise duty determined under section 3. The difference in excise duty due on such article after its removal from the customs warehouse or such other place where it is stored shall be payable in the manner set out in section 5 (1) (b) and the total excise duty paid on such article shall be in accordance with the value ascertained under section 7.

(3) Where the excise duty payable on any excisable article is not paid in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1), such excise duty shall be deemed to be in default:

Provided that, an excisable article which has been produced or manufactured in Sri Lanka for the purpose of export, shall not be liable for the payment of excise duty if a bond is executed for the landing of such excisable article at the port of destination."

6. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 5 of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 5A of that enactment:—

Insertion of new section 5A in the principal enactment.

"Power of Director-General to estimate sale price
of excisable articles in certain circumstances

5A. Where any person who carries on the business of a manufacturer, producer or importer of any excisable article sells such excisable article for the purpose of distribution at a price which, in the view of the Director-General, reduces or would reduce the excise duty payable by him, then, for the purposes of this Act, such excisable article shall be deemed to have been sold at a price, which in the opinion of the Director-General, it would have fetched in the open market on the date of such sale and the excise duty leviable from such person shall be computed accordingly."

7. Section 6 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed.

Repeal of section 6 of the principal
enactment.

8. Section 7 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendment
of section 7 of the principal
enactment.

(1) in subsection (1) of that section—

(a) by the repeal of sub-paragraphs (ii) of paragraph (a) thereof;

(b) by the renumbering of sub-paragraph (iii) of paragraph (a) as sub-paragraph (ii) thereof;

(c) by the addition at the end of that subsection of the following paragraph:—

“(c) the declared value of such excisable article for the purposes of the turnover tax determined in such manner as may be prescribed where, in relation to any excisable article, turnover tax is to be levied under the Turnover Tax Act, No. 69 of 1981.”;

(2) In subsection (2) of that section by the substitution for the words “thereof is determined with reference to the cost of transportation” of the words “thereof is determined with reference to the price for delivery at a place other than the place of removal the cost of transportation”;

(3) in subsection (3) of that section—

(a) by the substitution in sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) thereof, for the words “after importation thereof;” of the words “after importation thereof, and includes any other place registered with the Director-General for the storage of such excisable articles prior to sale;”;

“(aa) by the substitution, in paragraph (c) thereof, for the words “and distribution of the assessee” of the words “and distributor of the assessee”; and

Director-General to call for samples, book of
account,
register,
record or other document.

7A. The Director-General or any excise officer not below the rank of Superintendent authorized in that behalf by the Director-General may, for the purpose of ascertaining the value or verifying any matter relative to the recovery of excise duty or with regard to any matter into which it is his duty to inquire under this Act, by order in writing require any person to give information or produce for examination any book of account, register, record or other document relating to any excisable article or samples of any excisable article which are in such person's power to give or produce, at such place and within such period as may be specified in such order and to allow such excise officer to examine and take copies of or make extracts from any such book of account, register, record or other document."

10. Section 8 of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the repeal of subsection (1) of that section and the substitution of the following subsection therefor:—

Amendment
of section 8 of the principal
enactment.

"(1) The Minister may, by regulation made under this Act, provide for the remission of excise duty leviable on any excisable articles which are found to be deficient in quality by reason of any natural cause or otherwise or which are unsold for a period of time and are determined as unsaleable, by reason of being outmoded or for any other reasonable cause, by a Board of Assessors consisting of at least two officers not below the rank of Superintendent appointed in that behalf by the Director-General."

11. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 8, and shall have effect as section 8A, of the principal enactment:—

Insertion of new section 8A in the principal enactment.

"Appeals against determination of Board of Assessors.

8A. (1) Any person may, if he is dissatisfied with any determination made by a Board of Assessors under section 8, appeal against such determination in writing to the Director-General before the expiry of fourteen days after the date on which such determination is communicated to him:

Provided that, the Director-General, upon being satisfied that owing to absence from Sri Lanka, sickness or other reasonable cause, the appellant was prevented from appealing within such period, shall grant an extension of time for preferring the appeal

(2) The Director-General may, upon any appeal made to him under subsection (1) affirm, vary or annul the determination against which such appeal was made.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Director-General upon any appeal made to him under subsection (1), may appeal in writing to the Deputy Secretary to the Treasury before the expiry of ten days after the date on which such decision is communicated to him by the Director-General.

(4) The decision of the Deputy Secretary to the Treasury on any appeal preferred to him under subsection (3) shall be final."
