which the tax was so deducted, the income from which the tax has been so deducted shall be treated for all purposes of this Ordinance as if tax had been deducted therefrom at the new rate.

In any case where tax is, under the preceding provisions of this sub-section, deemed to have been deducted at a rate higher than a rate at which tax was actually deducted, no person shall be entitled to any repayment by reason only that such tax is so deemed to have been deducted at such higher rate."
