Act, No. 74 of 1988

coming to his notice in the performance of his duties under this Law or in the exercise of his right under subsection (3) of section 5, except as may be necessary for proceedings instituted or to be instituted under, or for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of, this Law or the Bribery Act, the Exchange Control Act, the Inland Revenue Act, No. 28 of 1979 or the Customs Ordinance."

Amendment
of section 9 of the principal enactment.

8. Section 9 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) in subsection (1) of that section by the insertion immediately after paragraph (b) of the following paragraph:—

"(bb) who wilfully omits any asset or liability from any such declaration; or";

(2) by the insertion immediately after subsection (3) of that section of the following subsection:—

"(3A) Where any person is convicted of an offence under paragraph (bb) of subsection (1) the asset in respect of which the offence was committed shall by virtue of such conviction be vested in the State free of all incumbrances.

(3B) The vesting of any assets in the State under subsection (3A) shall take effect—

(a) where an appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court against the order of forfeiture, upon the determination of the appeal, conforming or upholding the order of forfeiture;

(b) where no appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal against the order of forfeiture after the expiration of the period within which an appeal may be preferred to the Court of Appeal against the order of forfeiture."

Declaration of Assets and Liabilities (Amendment) 7
Act, No. 74 of 1988

9. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 9 of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 9A of that enactment:—

Insertion of new section 9A in the principal enactment.

"Procedure for prosecution and trial of offences referred to in section 9(1)
(b) or (bb).

9A. An offence under paragraph (b) or (bb) of subsection (1) of section 9 (in this section referred to as "the relevant offence") shall be inquired into, tried and otherwise dealt with, according to the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 (in this section referred to as "the Criminal Procedure Act") subject to the following modifications—

(a) no complaint under section 136(1) (a) of the Criminal Procedure Act in respect of the relevant offence shall be entertained by a Magistrate unless it is—

- (i) in writing;
- (ii) drawn and countersigned by a pleader;

(iii) signed by the complaint; and

(iv) accompanied by a certified copy, obtained under subsection (3) of section 5 of this Law, of the declaration in respect of which the offence is alleged to have been committed;

(b) notwithstanding anything in subsection (5) of section 9, of this Law, the prior sanction of the Attorney-General shall not be necessary for the institution of a prosecution for the relevant offence;

(c) where a complaint in respect of the relevant offence is entertained by a Magistrate, the Magistrate shall where he is of opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the person alleged to have committed the offence, not issue summons, under section 139 of the Criminal Procedure Act requiring the attendance of such person, unless the complainant deposits in court, such sum as the Magistrate may determine, as security for the payment of the costs incurred, or likely to be incurred, by the accused and of any compensation that may be ordered under paragraph (d) ;

(d) whenever a Magistrate acquits or discharges a person accused of the relevant offence and declares that the complaint was frivolous or vexatious, the Magistrate shall order the complainant to pay the State reasonable costs in a sum determined by the Magistrate and shall also order the complainant to pay to the accused the amount of the costs incurred by the accused and such compensation as the Magistrate shall think fit from and out of the security deposited by the complainant ;

(e) nothing in subsection (7) of section 17 of the Criminal Procedure Act shall limit the amount of the compensation that may be ordered by a Magistrate under paragraph (d) ;

(f) where the complainant in a prosecution for the relevant offence pays the State costs and compensation ordered against him under paragraph (d), the accused shall not be entitled to institute, or maintain, an action for damages in any civil court against such complainant in respect of such prosecution ; and

(g) notwithstanding anything in section 318 of the Criminal Procedure Act, the complainant in a prosecution for the relevant offence may appeal against the acquittal of the person accused of such offence, without the written approval of the Attorney-General."

Declaration of Assets and Liabilities (Amendment) 9
Act, No. 74 of 1988

10. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 10, and shall have effect as section 10A of the principal enactment:—

Insertion of new section 10A in the principal enactment.

“Value of assets.

10A. Nothing in this Law shall be read and construed as requiring any person to whom this Law applies to indicate the value of any asset included in any declaration made by him under this Law except where such asset consists of holdings in cash.”.

11. Section 12 of the principal enactment, as amended by Act No. 29 of 1985, is hereby further amended as follows:—

Amendment
of section 12 of the principal enactment.

(a) by the substitution for the definition of assets and liabilities of the following definition:—

“assets and liabilities” means assets and liabilities in and outside Sri Lanka, and includes movable and immovable property owned by the declarant in whole or in part, any property in which the declarant has a beneficial interest and any property acquired by the declarant during the period to which the declaration relates, in the name of his spouse or child;’;
