L. D.—O. 1/53.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A PROVIDENT FUND FOR THE BENEFIT OF CERTAIN CLASSES OF EMPLOYEES AND TO PROVIDE FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

[Date of Assent: May 9, 1958]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Ceylon in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Employees' Provident Fund Act, No. 15 of 1958, and shall come into operation on such date (hereafter in this Act referred to as the appointed date) as the Minister may appoint by Order published in the Gazette.

Short title and date of operation.

PART I.

ESTABLISHMENT AND MEMBERSHIP OF THE EMPLOYEES' PROVIDENT FUND AND ADMINISTRATION OF THIS ACT AND OF SUCH FUND.

2. For the purposes of this Act there shall be established a fund called the Employees' Provident Fund (hereafter in this Act referred to as the Fund).

Establishment of Employees'
Provident Fund.

3. (1) Where an employee first becomes liable under section 10 to pay contributions to the Fund, he shall then become a member of the Fund and continue to be a member of the Fund so long as there is any sum to the credit of his individual account in the Fund.

Membership of the Fund.

(2) Neither a member of the Fund nor any person claiming under him shall have any interest in, or claim to, the moneys of the Fund otherwise than by virtue of any provision of this Act or of any regulation.

4. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the Commissioner of Labour shall be in charge of the general administration of this Act.

Administration of this Act.

(2) Subject to any general or special directions of the Commissioner of Labour, any Deputy Commissioner of Labour or any Assistant Commissioner of Labour may exercise, perform or discharge any power, duty or function of the Commissioner under this Act or under any regulation.

(3) There may be appointed such number of officers as may be required for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(4) The Commissioner of Labour may either generally or specially authorise any officer appointed under sub-section (3) of this section to exercise, perform or discharge any power, duty or function of the Commissioner under this Act or under any regulation.

Powers and duties of the Monetary Board in relation to the Fund.

5. The Monetary Board—

- (a) may appoint such officers and servants as may be required by the Board for exercising its powers, performing its duties and discharging its functions under this Act, fix the salaries and wages of such officers and servants and determine their conditions of service;
- (b) shall receive all sums paid under this Act as contributions and surcharges and the income from the investment of moneys of the Fund and shall credit such sums and income to the Fund;
- (c) shall have custody of the moneys of the Fund;
- (d) shall pay to the persons certified by the Commissioner the benefits to which those persons are entitled under this Act;
- (e) may invest such of the moneys of the Fund as are not immediately required for the purposes of this Act in such securities as the Board may consider fit and may sell such securities;
- (f) shall maintain a general account in respect of the Fund, and a separate account (in this Act referred to as an individual account) in respect of each member of the Fund;
- (g) shall cause the books of accounts relating to the Fund to be balanced as on the thirty-first day of December in each year;
- (h) shall cause to be prepared in respect of the Fund for each year a statement of receipts and payments, a statement of income and expenditure, a statement of assets and liabilities, and a statement of investments showing the face value, purchase price, and market value of each of the investments;
- (i) shall transmit to the Minister a copy of each of the statements prepared under the preceding paragraph (h) for each year within three months after the thirty-first day of December of that year;

- (j) shall notify each member of the Fund, within three months after the thirty-first day of December in each year, the amount lying to the credit of his individual account on that day;
- (k) shall deduct from the income from the investment of moneys of the Fund the expenses incurred by the Board and the Commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this Act; and
- (l) shall have such other powers and duties in connection with the Fund as may be conferred or imposed on such Board, by Order published in the Gazette, by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance.

6. (1) The accounts of the Fund in respect of each year shall be audited by the Auditor-General and the cost of the audit shall be paid to him out of the Fund. All payments made to him under this sub-section shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon.

Auditor-General to audit the accounts of the Fund, &c.

(2) The Auditor-General or any officer of his department authorised by him to audit the accounts of the Fund shall have access to all such books and documents as the Auditor-General or such officer may consider necessary for the purposes of the audit of such accounts, and shall be furnished by the Monetary Board and the Commissioner with such information within their knowledge or ascertainable by them as may be required for such purposes.

(3) The Auditor-General shall examine the accounts of the Fund and submit to the Minister annually a report—

- (a) stating whether he has or has not obtained all the information required by him,
- (b) stating whether the accounts referred to in the report are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the affairs of the Fund, and
- (c) drawing attention to any item in such accounts which in his opinion may be of interest to the Senate and the House of Representatives in any examination of such accounts.

Such report shall not disclose the name of any member of the Fund.

(4) The Minister shall lay before the Senate and the House of Representatives a copy of the Auditor-General's report submitted to the Minister under sub-section (3) of this section and copies of the statements transmitted to the Minister by the Monetary Board under paragraph (i) of section 5.

Advances to the Monetary Board by the Government.

7. (1) There shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon to the Monetary Board such sums as may be determined by resolution of the House of Representatives for defraying—

(a) all expenditure, including capital expenditure, incurred by such Board and the Commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this Act during the period of twelve months commencing on the date of enactment of this Act ; and

(b) all capital expenditure incurred by such Board and the Commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this Act during the period of twenty-four months commencing on the day immediately succeeding the date of the termination of the period referred to in paragraph (a) of this sub-section.

(2) Every sum paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon under sub-section (1) of this section shall constitute a loan from the Government to the Monetary Board and shall be repaid in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance.

PART II.

COVERED EMPLOYMENTS, EMPLOYEES TO WHOM THIS ACT APPLIES, AND CONTRIBUTIONS.

Covered employments and employees to whom this Act applies.

8. (1) Any employment, including any employment in the service of a corporation whose capital or a part of whose capital is provided by the Government, may by regulation be declared to be a covered employment.

(2) Regulations may be made—

(a) to treat as a covered employment any employment outside Ceylon which is for the purposes of a trade or business carried on in Ceylon and which would be a covered employment if it were in Ceylon ; and

(b) to treat as not being a covered employment or to disregard—

- (i) employment under a person who employs less than a prescribed minimum number of employees ;
- (ii) employment which is usually performed by the day or by the job or by the journey ; and
- (iii) employment of a person in the service or for the purposes of the trade or business, or as a partner, of that person's spouse.

(3) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, every person over a prescribed age who is employed by any other person in any covered employment shall be an employee to whom this Act applies. For the purposes of this sub-section different ages may be prescribed for different covered employments.

(4) Any regulation declaring any employment to be a covered employment may provide that such persons only as earn less than a prescribed amount in that employment or as are of a prescribed class or description, and not other persons in that employment, shall be employees to whom this Act applies.

9. Where the immediate employer of any person is himself in the employment of some other person, and the first-mentioned person is employed to do any work in the course of and for the purposes of the business of that other person, that other person shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the employer of the first-mentioned person jointly with the immediate employer.

Immediate employer being himself in the employment of another person.

10. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section and of section 27, an employee to whom this Act applies shall, in respect of each month during which he works in a covered employment, be liable to pay to the Fund a contribution of an amount equal to four per centum of his total earnings from that employment during that month:

*Normal
contributions.*

Provided that no employee who has attained the age of fifty-five years in the case of a male or fifty years in the case of a female at the time when he or she first becomes an employee to whom this Act applies shall be liable to pay such contribution to the Fund.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section and of section 27, the employer of every employee to whom this Act applies and who is liable to pay contributions to the Fund shall, in respect of each month during which such employee is in a covered employment under such employer, be liable to pay to the Fund before the last day of the succeeding month, a contribution of an amount equal to six per centum of such employee's total earnings from that employment during that month.

(3) The liability of an employee in a covered employment and his employer to pay contributions under this section shall commence on the day immediately after the date fixed in relation to such employment by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette. Different dates may be fixed under this sub-section for different classes of employees in the same covered employment.

Rights of employees and employers to elect to pay contributions calculated at higher percentages, and liability of employees and employers who make such election.

11. (1) An employee to whom this Act applies and his employer may elect, by notice sent to the Commissioner in the prescribed form and manner, to pay, after the date specified in the notice as the date on which the election shall take effect, contributions calculated at such percentages higher than those specified in section 10 as are specified in the notice.

(2) Where an employee and his employer make an election by notice under sub-section (1) of this section, such election shall be irrevocable after the date on which the election takes effect, and they shall, after that date, be liable to pay as their contributions under this Act amounts calculated at the percentages specified in that notice.

Commissioner's direction to employer who has reduced the earnings of any employee for the purpose of reducing the amount of the employer's contributions under this Act in respect of the employee.

12. (1) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that the employer of any employee has, during the period of one year immediately before the appointed date or at any time on or after that date, reduced the earnings of such employee for the purpose of reducing the amount of such contributions, the Commissioner shall, by written notice, direct such employer to pay to the Fund in such instalments and before such dates as may be specified in that notice, in respect of the entire period during which such employee receives such reduced earnings, the difference between the sum he should have paid during that period as contributions had such contributions been calculated on the basis of the earnings of such employee before the reduction and the sum actually paid by him as contributions during that period.

(2) Where the Commissioner gives any employer a direction under subsection (1) of this section, such employer shall comply with that direction.

13. Where the amount of a contribution payable under this Act involves the fraction of a cent, then—

- (a) if such fraction is less than one-half of a cent, such fraction shall not be taken into account; and
- (b) if such fraction amounts to or exceeds one-half of a cent, such fraction shall be reckoned as one cent.

When fraction of a cent is to be ignored, or is to be reckoned as one cent, in computing the amount of a contribution.

14. (1) Interest at such rate, not less than two and a half per centum per annum, as may from time to time be fixed by the Monetary Board with the concurrence of the Minister and the Minister of Finance shall be paid for each year, out of the income from the investment of the moneys of the Fund, on the amount standing to the credit of the individual account of each member of the Fund as at the thirty-first day of December in that year:

Interest on contributions, &c.

Provided that—

- (a) no such interest shall be paid on the contributions paid under this Act by or in respect of an employee for the year in which the employee first became liable to pay contributions;
- (b) the rate of such interest shall not exceed two and a half per centum per annum unless the assets of the Fund, valued at the market value, exceed the liabilities of the Fund by ten per centum;
- (c) for the period commencing on January 1 of the calendar year in which any sum is paid as a benefit under this Act to or in respect of a member of the Fund and ending on the date of payment of that sum, interest at the rate of two and a half per centum per annum shall be paid on the amount to the credit of the individual account of that member at the date of termination of that period; and

(d) where any sum is credited under section 27 by the Monetary Board to the individual account of a member of the Fund on any date after the thirtieth day of June in any year, no such interest shall be paid on that sum for the period commencing on that date and ending on the thirty-first day of December of that year.

(2) Where the income from the investment of the moneys of the Fund is inadequate to pay any part of the interest payable on contributions paid to the Fund under this Act, the amount of the deficit shall be met out of moneys provided by Parliament for the purpose.

(3) Any sum provided by Parliament under subsection (2) of this section shall constitute a loan from the Government to the Monetary Board and shall be repaid in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance.

Payment of contributions due from employees.

15. The employer of an employee to whom this Act applies shall deduct and pay to the Fund the contribution for each month of such employee under this Act before the last day of the succeeding month from the earnings of such employee : and a contribution paid under this section to the Fund by such employer on behalf of such employee shall be deemed to have been paid to the Fund by such employee.

Imposition of surcharge on employers on failure to pay
contributions
on due date.

16. Where contributions payable under this Act in respect of any month have not been paid to the Fund before the last day of the succeeding month and the employer is unable to explain to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the failure to pay such contributions was due to circumstances beyond his control, he shall be liable to pay to the Fund, within thirty days after that day, in addition to the amount of the contributions due, a surcharge of ten per centum of such amount.

Recovery of
contributions.

17. Any moneys due to the Fund shall be recoverable, as a debt due to the Crown, by an action in which proceedings may be taken by way of summary procedure. The provisions of the Civil Procedure Code relating to actions of which the procedure is summary shall apply to an action under this section, and, for the purposes only of the application of such provisions to such action, section 8 of that Code shall have effect as if, for the words " by this Ordinance " occurring in that section, there were substituted the words " by this Ordinance or by any other written law ".

Cap. 86.

(2) Proceedings for the recovery of any moneys due to the Fund may be instituted by the Commissioner or any officer authorised in that behalf by him, and the Commissioner or such officer may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, conduct such proceedings.

(3) The provisions of the Prescription Ordinance shall not apply to the recovery of any sums payable as contributions or surcharges under this Act.

Cap. 55.

18. The contributions of a member of the Fund and of his employer in respect of him and the interest on such contributions shall be credited by the Monetary Board to the individual account of such member.

The sums to be credited to the individual accounts of members.

19. No employer shall, by reason of his liability to pay in respect of any employee any contribution or surcharge under this Act, reduce the earnings of that employee or alter to his detriment any benefits which he is entitled to under the provisions of any other written law or under his contract of employment with that employer.

Employer prohibited from reducing earnings of his employees, &c.

20. The employer of any employee shall not deduct from the earnings of that employee any sum which that employer is liable to pay as a contribution or surcharge under this Act, and any contract entered into by that employer with that employee whereby any part of the liability of that employer under this Act is transferred to that employee shall be null and void.

Employer prohibited from deducting from earnings of employee payments due from employer under this Act in respect of employee.

21. Any sum due under this Act from an employer on the day immediately following the end of the period within which that sum is required by this Act to be paid by him shall be the first charge on his assets notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law.

Amount due under this Act from an employer to be the first charge on his assets.

22. Every assignment of, or charge on, any sum to the credit of the individual account of a member of the Fund and every agreement to assign or charge any such sum shall be void, and, where that member is adjudged insolvent by a competent court, any such sum shall not pass to any assignee acting on behalf of that member's creditors notwithstanding the provisions of the Insolvency Ordinance.

Money to the credit of individual accounts to be inalienable.

Cap. 82.

PART III.

Benefit.

Time at which benefits will be paid.

23. A member of the Fund shall be paid the total amount lying to the credit of such member's individual account as soon as may be practicable—

- (a) after such member, being a male, attains the age of fifty-five years, or, being a female, attains the age of fifty years, or
- (b) after such member, being a female, ceases to be employed in consequence of marriage, or
- (c) after such member ceases to be employed by reason of a permanent and total incapacity for work and is certified by a registered medical practitioner to be unfit for work any longer for that reason, or
- (d) before the date of such member's departure from Ceylon if such member declares in writing that such departure is with the intention of not returning to Ceylon:

Provided that, where a member of the Fund, being a male, continues to work in a covered employment after he has attained the age of fifty-five years, or, being a female, continues to work in a covered employment after she has attained the age of fifty years, such member shall not be entitled to the payment under the preceding provisions of this section until such member ceases to be in such employment.

In this section, "registered medical practitioner" means a medical practitioner registered under the Medical Ordinance.

Cap. 90.

Persons to whom benefits shall be paid in certain circumstances.

24. Where a member of the Fund dies before becoming entitled to the amount standing to his credit in his individual account or where he dies after becoming entitled thereto but before receiving such amount or where no nominee has been appointed under regulations made under this Act to whom such amount should be paid in the event of the death of such member or where one nominee has been appointed and he is dead or where more than one nominee is appointed and any one of them is dead, then such amount shall—

- (a) if it is not less than two thousand five hundred rupees, be paid to the executor of the last will or the administrator of the estate of such deceased member to be included in that estate; and

- (b) if it is less than two thousand five hundred rupees, be paid to the person who is, or be apportioned by the Monetary Board among the persons who are certified by the Commissioner to be in his opinion entitled by law to such amount.

25. Any sum to which a person is entitled under section 23 or section 24 or to which a nominee appointed by a member of the Fund under regulations made under this Act is entitled upon the death of such member is referred to in this Act as a benefit.

Definition of "benefit".

26. It shall be a condition of any person's right to a benefit under this Act that he or any person on his behalf makes a claim thereto in the prescribed manner.

Claim to benefit.

PART IV.

APPROVED PROVIDENT FUNDS AND APPROVED CONTRIBUTORY PENSION SCHEMES.

27. (1) Where a provident fund or a contributory pension scheme has been established before the appointed date for the benefit of any employees in a covered employment, the administrators of such fund or scheme shall, within three months after the declaration of that employment as a covered employment by regulation made under this Act, furnish the Commissioner with the prescribed particulars relating to such fund or scheme, and, if the Commissioner, after examining such particulars and making such investigations as he may deem necessary, is of the opinion that such fund or scheme satisfies the prescribed requirements and that it is expedient that such fund or scheme should be declared to be an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme, he shall declare such fund or scheme to be an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme; and, if he so declares, no contributions shall, with effect from the date fixed in relation to such fund or scheme, be payable to the Fund by such employees and the employer of such employees.

Approved
provident funds and approved contributory pension schemes.

(2) The employer in a covered employment who proposes to establish, after the appointed date, a provident fund for the employees in such employment shall furnish the Commissioner with the prescribed particulars relating to the proposed provident fund, and, if after examining such particulars and making such investigations as he may deem necessary, the Commissioner is of opinion that the proposed provident fund satisfies the prescribed requirements and that it is expedient that such fund should be declared to be an approved provident fund, the Commissioner shall declare the proposed provident fund to be an approved provident fund; and, if he so declares and the provident fund is established, contributions to the Employees' Provident Fund shall, with effect from the date fixed in relation to such approved provident fund by the Commissioner, cease to be payable by such employees and such employer.

(3) No rules or regulations governing an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme shall be altered except with the written sanction of the Commissioner, and, where there is a contravention of the provisions of this sub-section, the administrators of such fund or scheme shall be deemed to have committed such contravention.

(4) Every employer and employee who are liable to contribute to an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme under the rules or regulations in force for that fund or scheme shall comply with such of those rules or regulations as are applicable to them.

(5) Where, either by reason of the fact that an employee liable to pay contributions under this Act to the Employees' Provident Fund takes up an employment in respect of which an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme exists or in the circumstances specified in sub-section (2) of this section, contributions in respect of an employee cease to be payable to the Employees' Provident Fund, the amount standing to the credit of his individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund shall be retained in that account to be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Part III of this Act.

(6) Where an approved provident fund is wound up, the administrators or liquidators of that approved provident fund shall transfer to the Employees' Provident Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid to that approved provident fund.

(7) Where an employee who is a contributor to an approved provident fund leaves the employment by virtue of which he has been such contributor, takes up a covered employment thereafter in respect of which he is not liable to contribute to any other approved provident fund and notifies to the Commissioner in writing the assumption of duties in such covered employment, the Commissioner shall in writing direct the administrators of the first-mentioned approved provident fund to transfer to the Employees' Provident Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid in respect of that employee to the first-mentioned approved provident fund.

(8) Where the administrators of a provident fund or contributory pension scheme referred to in sub-section (1) of this section fail to comply with the provisions of that sub-section or where such fund or scheme is not declared by the Commissioner to be an approved provident fund or an approved contributory pension scheme, such administrators shall transfer to the Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid in respect of employees to the first-mentioned provident fund or pension scheme.

(9) The Monetary Board—

(a) shall, where a sum from an approved provident fund is transferred under sub-section (6) of this section to the Employees' Provident Fund, open an individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund for each of the employees who were contributors to that approved provident fund at the time of such transfer, and shall credit to the individual account of each such employee in the Employees' Provident Fund such part of the sum transferred to the Employees' Provident Fund as was to the credit of his account in that approved provident fund, and

(b) shall open an individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund for every employee in respect of whom any sum is transferred under sub-section (7) or sub-section (8) of this section to the Employees' Provident Fund and shall credit that sum to that individual account.

(10) Where the Commissioner is dissatisfied with the management of any approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme, he may revoke the declaration made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of this section in respect of that fund or scheme, and, if such declaration is revoked, he shall in writing—

(a) communicate the revocation to the administrators of that fund or scheme, and

(b) direct those administrators to transfer to the Employees' Provident Fund all such contributions and interest thereon as have been paid to that fund or scheme, and those administrators shall comply with the Commissioner's direction.

(11) The Monetary Board shall, where the administrators of an approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme have complied with a direction issued by the Commissioner under sub-section (10) of this section, open an individual account in the Employees' Provident Fund for each employee who was a contributor to that approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme when such administrators complied with such direction, and shall credit to that individual account such part of the sum transferred from that approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme to the Employees' Provident Fund in compliance with the Commissioner's direction as was to the credit of that employee's account in that approved provident fund or approved contributory pension scheme.

DETERMINATION OF CLAIMS.

Commissioner or an officer authorised by the Commissioner to determine claims.

28. All claims to benefits shall be determined by the Commissioner or by any officer authorised in that behalf by him and the determination of the Commissioner or such officer shall, subject to any decision on an appeal made against such determination in accordance with the provisions of this Act, be final:

Provided that any determination made by any officer under this section may within the prescribed period be reviewed by the Commissioner on his own motion; and in such case the determination of the Commissioner shall be deemed, for the purposes of section 29, to be the determination in that case.

Appeals.

29. (1) Any person aggrieved by any determination made under section 28 may appeal from such determination to a Tribunal of Appeal (hereafter in this Act referred to as the Tribunal) constituted in the prescribed manner, and the decision of the Tribunal on such appeal shall, subject to any Order which the Supreme Court may make on appeal made from such decision in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of this section, be final.

(2) Where the Commissioner or any party to an appeal made to the Tribunal is dissatisfied with the decision of the Tribunal on such appeal, the Commissioner or that party may, by written petition in which every other party to the appeal is mentioned as a respondent, appeal to the Supreme Court from that decision on a question of law. The petition of appeal shall state the question of law to be argued, shall bear a certificate by an advocate or a proctor that such question is fit for adjudication by the Supreme Court, shall be presented to the Tribunal by the appellant within twenty-one days after the date of the Tribunal's decision from which the appeal is preferred, and shall be accompanied by a sufficient number of copies for service on each of the persons mentioned as respondents. Every such petition of appeal shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3) Where a petition of appeal is presented to the Tribunal in the manner and within the time specified in sub-section (2) of this section, it shall be the duty of the Tribunal—

- (a) to cause the petition to be transmitted to the Supreme Court together with the record of the proceedings in which the decision of the Tribunal against which the petition is preferred was made, and
- (b) to cause notice of the appeal and a copy of the petition of appeal to be served on each of the respondents named in the petition of appeal.

(4) Every appeal to the Supreme Court under this section may be heard and determined by any Judge of that Court.

(5) Upon a decision being given by the Supreme Court in any appeal under this section, the Registrar of that Court shall remit the case to the Tribunal together with the decision of that Court, and it shall be the duty of the Tribunal, if the decision of that Court so requires, to rescind or vary, in such manner as is required by the decision of that Court, the decision of the Tribunal from which the appeal was preferred and, where necessary for the purpose of giving effect to the decision of that Court, to make a fresh decision.

(6) In any appeal made to the Supreme Court under this section that Court may make such Order in regard to costs as to that Court may seem fit.

(7) Any costs ordered by the Supreme Court under sub-section (6) of this section to be paid by any person may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other written law, be recovered, on application made in that behalf to the Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction in the place where that person is resident, in like manner as a fine imposed by that Magistrate's Court, notwithstanding that such costs may exceed the amount of the maximum fine which that Magistrate's Court may in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction impose.

(8) Subject to any regulations made under this Act, the Tribunal may regulate its own procedure.

Remuneration
of members of the Tribunal.

30. The members of the Tribunal may be paid such remuneration as the Minister may determine with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance.

PART VI.

GENERAL.

Power of Commissioner to call for returns, &c.

31. (1) The Commissioner may, for the purposes of this Act, direct in writing any person to furnish to him before a date specified in the direction—

- (a) a return containing such particulars as he may require; and
- (b) such explanation in writing as he may require in respect of any particulars specified in any return so furnished, and such person shall comply with such direction. A direction under the preceding provisions of this sub-section may be given by notice published in the Gazette and in two or more newspapers circulating in Ceylon.

(2) Any person furnishing any document under sub-section (1) of this section may transmit with such document a request in writing that the contents of such document should be treated as confidential and, where such request is made, the contents of such document shall not be disclosed without the consent previously obtained of such person.

(3) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be deemed to require or permit any person to disclose any explanation or to produce any document in any case where such disclosure or production by that person is prohibited by or under the provisions of any written law other than this Act.

32. Subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed, the Commissioner or any officer authorised in that behalf by him in writing, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, may—

Powers of Commissioner
and other officers to inspect premises, &c.

- (a) enter and inspect at all reasonable hours by day or night any premises or place for examining any register or record relating to the earnings of any employee,
- (b) take copies of any such register or record or part thereof,
- (c) examine any person whom he has reasonable cause to believe is an employer or an employee, and
- (d) examine any records or other documents relating to any provident fund or pension scheme.

33. Every employer of employees in a covered employment shall keep in the prescribed form the prescribed records.

Certain employers to keep records.

34. Any person who—

Offences.

- (a) contravenes any provision of this Act or of any regulation made thereunder;
- (b) furnishes, for the purposes of this Act, any information which is, or any document the contents of which are, or any part of the contents of which is, to his knowledge untrue or incorrect; or
- (c) wilfully delays or obstructs the Commissioner or any other officer in the exercise of his powers under section 32, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

35. Where an act or omission which constitutes an offence for which an employer is liable under this Act has in fact been committed or made by some manager, agent, servant or other person, the manager, agent, servant or other person shall be liable to be proceeded against for the offence in the same manner as if he were the employer, and either together with the employer, or before or after the conviction of the employer, and shall be liable to the like punishment as if he were the employer.

Liability of manager, agent, &c., of employer for offences.

36. (1) Where any employer is charged with an offence under this Act, he shall, upon complaint duly made by him in accordance with the provisions of section 148 of the Criminal Procedure Code, and on giving to the prosecution not less than three days'

notice of his intention, be entitled, subject to the provisions of Chapter XV of that Code, to have another person whom he charges as the actual offender brought before the Court, and if, after commission of the offence by such other person has been proved, the employer proves to the satisfaction of the Court that he has used due diligence to enforce the provisions of this Act and such other person has committed the offence without his knowledge, consent or connivance, then such other person shall be convicted of the offence and the employer shall be exempt from any punishment in respect of the offence.

(2) Where in any case referred to in sub-section (1) of this section a complaint is made by an employer against any other person,—

- (a) the prosecution against such other person shall be conducted by or on behalf of the employer,
- (b) any witness called by the prosecution in the proceedings against such other person may be cross-examined by any officer authorised in that behalf by the Commissioner, and
- (c) pending the determination of the proceedings against such other person, the proceedings in the prosecution of the employer shall be adjourned.

Punishment
for offences.

37. (1) Every person who is guilty of an offence under this Act shall be liable, on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and shall in addition be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each day on which the offence is continued after conviction.

(2) On the conviction of an employer for failure to pay any sum which he is liable to pay under this Act, the Court may, in addition to any other sentence, order the employer to pay such sum, and such sum may be recovered in the same manner as a fine.

38. Where an employer is convicted for failure to pay any sum which he is liable to pay under this Act, then, if a notice in the prescribed form of the intention so to do has been served on the employer at any time before the date of the commencement of the trial, evidence may be given of the failure on the part of the employer to pay any other sum which was due from him under this Act within the two years immediately preceding the date on which complaint under section 148 of the Criminal Procedure Code was made to Court of the offence of which the employer is so convicted and, on proof of such failure, the Court may order the employer to pay such sum as may be found by the Court to be due from him. Any sum ordered to be paid under this section may be recovered in the same manner as a fine.

Cap. 16

39. Where—

Burden of proof.

- (a) an employer is prosecuted for the failure to pay any sum due from him under this Act, or
- (b) in any case in which an employer is convicted for failure to pay any sum due from him under this Act, evidence is given, under section 38, of any other failure to pay any sum due from him under this Act, the burden of proving that the sum was paid shall lie on the employer.

40. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body of persons, then—

Offences by bodies of persons.

- (a) if that body of persons is a body corporate, every director and officer of that body corporate,
- (b) if that body of persons is a firm, every partner of that firm, and
- (c) if that body of persons is a trade union, every officer of that trade union, shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence:

Provided that a director or an officer of such body corporate, or a partner of such firm or an officer of such trade union shall not be deemed to be guilty of such offence if he proves that such offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

41. No prosecution for an offence under this Act shall be instituted except by or with the written sanction of the Commissioner.

No prosecution without the sanction of the Commissioner.
