Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025

[Certified on 04th of August, 2025]

L.D.- O. 61/2024

AN ACT TO AMEND THE COMPANIES ACT, NO. 07 OF 2007

BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows: -

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025.

Short title and the date of operation

(2) The provisions of this Act other than the provisions of this section shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may appoint by Order published in the Gazette.

(3) The provisions of this section shall come into operation on the date on which the Bill becomes an Act of Parliament.

2. Section 4 of the Companies Act, No. 07 of 2007 (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”) is hereby amended by the repeal of subsection (2) thereof and the substitution therefor, of the following: -

Amendment of section 4 of Act, No. 07 of 2007

“(2) A company, other than a company limited by guarantee, may have a single shareholder, who may -

- (a) be a natural person;
- (b) be a body corporate; or
- (c) be the Secretary to the Treasury holding shares on behalf of the Government of Sri Lanka.”.

3. Section 11 of the principal enactment is hereby amended in subsection (5) thereof by the substitution for the words “ten working days”, of the words “twenty working days”.

Amendment of section 11 of the principal enactment

Amendment of section 51 of the principal
enactment

4. Section 51 of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows: -

- (1) by the insertion immediately after subsection (1) thereof, of the following new subsection: -

“(1A) A company shall not issue a share warrant to bearer or bearer share irrespective of whether its articles of association purport to authorise it to do so.

For the purposes of this subsection -

“share warrant to bearer” means a negotiable instrument whose ownership is determined by possession of the issued physical warrant certificate, and any other similar warrant or instrument without traceability, but does not include -

- (a) any instrument that only confers rights to subscribe for shares in a company under specified conditions, but not ownership or entitlement to ownership in shares, unless and until the instrument is exercised or redeemed; and
- (b) a dematerialised or registered form of warrant or any other instrument whose owners can be identified; and “bearer share” means a negotiable instrument which may contain the rights specified in section 49 but whose ownership is determined by the simple possession of a physically issued share certificate, and any other similar instrument such as security to the bearer named in section 110(1)(b) (iii), without traceability, but does not include a dematerialised or registered form of share certificate whose owners can be identified.”;

- (2) in sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subsection (4) thereof, by the substitution for the words “shares issued;”, of the words “shares issued and names of the persons to whom such shares are issued;”.

5. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 51 of the principal enactment, which shall have effect as section 51A of the principal enactment:-

Insertion of new section 51A of the principal enactment

“Duty of the existing holder of any share warrant to bearer or bearer share.

51A. (1) Every holder of any share warrant to bearer or bearer shares shall, within sixty days from the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025 inform the issuing company of such fact and provide to the secretary of the company in writing his name, address and other contact details.

(2) The company shall, upon the receipt of details under subsection (1) maintain a register and record such details forthwith.

(3) Where any holder of any share warrants to bearer or bearer shares fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), any rights associated with such share warrants to bearer or bearer shares shall stand nullified at the end of such period specified in that subsection.

(4) Every holder of any share warrants to bearer or bearer shares shall, within sixty days from the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025 or upon the nullification under subsection (3), convert such share warrants to bearer or bearer shares to shares in registerable form for the purpose of the shareholder register under the provisions of section 123(1).”.

Amendment of section 52 of the principal
enactment

6. Section 52 of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the repeal of subsection (3) thereof, and the substitution therefor, of the following: -

“(3) Upon receipt of the consideration, the company shall make an allotment of the shares within twenty working days of the receipt of such consideration:

Provided however, that the period of time specified in this subsection shall not apply in respect of the issuance of shares which are fully paid up from the reserves of the company to all shareholders of the same class in proportion to the number of shares held by each shareholder.”.

Insertion of new division in the principal
enactment

7. The following new division is hereby inserted immediately after section 130 (SHARE REGISTER) of the principal enactment and shall have effect as a new division of that enactment: -

“BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP

Details of the beneficial ownership of a company to be given to the Registrar.

130A. (1) Every company incorporated or registered under this Act or any former written law relating to companies (under this heading referred to as the “company”) shall, at the time of incorporation or within twenty working days of the issue of any shares or transfer of shares, give notice to the Registrar in the prescribed form of-

- (a) the full names and previous full names (if any) as appearing in the identification document of beneficial owners of the company;
- (b) the dates and places of birth, nationalities, countries of residence, and the last known addresses of beneficial owners of the company;
- (c) the residential addresses, business addresses, email addresses, and postal addresses of beneficial owners of the company;
- (d) the National Identity Card numbers, Tax Identification Numbers, or passport numbers and the countries of issuance of beneficial owners of the company;

(e) the contact details of beneficial owners of the company; and

(f) a full statement describing the nature and the extent of the beneficial ownership.

(2) Every shareholder shall, within ten working days of the subscription of any shares or transfer of shares give the details specified in subsection (1) to the company.

(3) Every director or secretary of the company shall disclose the details referred to in subsection (1) relating to beneficial owners of the company to the Registrar when such director or secretary becomes aware of such details.

(4) (a) The company shall maintain a register and record the details specified in subsection (1) when it becomes aware of such details and the company shall keep such register of beneficial owners of the company subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 116 at its registered office.

(b) The provisions of section 124 relating to the place of the share register of a company shall mutatis mutandis apply to the register of beneficial owners of the company.

(5) (a) A company shall keep and maintain records of the details of the beneficial owners of the company and the nature and extent of the beneficial ownership of the company for a period of at least ten years after the date on which the record was made.

(b) The administrator or liquidator of a company under dissolution and any other person involved in the dissolution of a company shall keep and maintain records of the details of the beneficial owners of the company and the nature and extent of the beneficial ownership of the company for a period of at least five years after the date on which the company is dissolved or otherwise ceases to exist.

(6) The Registrar shall maintain a register to record the details specified in subsection (1).

(7) The company shall, within fourteen working days upon the receipt of details that a person holds, acquires, or effects a subsequent change of beneficial ownership of a company, notify the Registrar of such details specified in subsection (1).

(8) Every company shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (7) deliver the details of beneficial owners of the company in a form as may be prescribed together with the annual return of the company under section 131.

(9) The provisions of section 181 relating to the power to require information as to persons interested in shares or debentures shall mutatis mutandis apply to beneficial owners of the company.

(10) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of section 262, the provisions of sections 130A to 130J shall apply to an offshore company incorporated outside Sri Lanka and registered under this Act and an overseas company registered under this Act.

(11) In this section, the expression “former written law relating to companies” means any written law repealed by the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 145) or the Companies Act, No. 17 of 1982 or this Act.

Details to be furnished.

130B. A company or the Registrar shall, upon a request made by the Attorney-General, Financial Intelligence Unit established under the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, No. 6 of 2006, Director-General of Customs, Commissioner-General of Inland Revenue, any public authority having the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting money laundering, terrorist financing or any other criminal offences, any public procurement authority, or any regulatory authority make available the details of the beneficial owners of the company held or submitted under section 130A.

Appointment of a person for safekeeping and making available details.

130C. (1) A company shall appoint, in a prescribed manner a natural person residing in Sri Lanka as the authorised person who is –

- (a) responsible for the safe keeping of the register of the beneficial owners of the company; and

(b) authorised by the company to make the details of the beneficial owners of the company recorded in terms of section 130A available to the person or authority specified in section 130B.

(2) The company shall disclose the details of the authorised person referred to in subsection (1) at the time of incorporation and any subsequent changes to such authorised person in a form as may be prescribed.

(3) Every company incorporated or registered under the Companies Act, No. 07 of 2007 or any former written law relating to companies shall, within a period of three months from the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025, disclose the details of the authorised person referred to in subsection (1).

Details for public.

130D. (1) The Registrar shall make the details of the beneficial owners of a company promptly accessible to the public, whether electronically or physically. Such details shall be limited to the full names and former full names (if any), nationalities (including dual citizenship, where applicable), countries of residence, business addresses, and the nature and extent of beneficial ownership in the company:

Provided however, any member of the public seeking any further information set out in subsection (1) of section 130A, may make an application for information in terms of the provisions of the Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016.

(2) Any member of the public who intends to obtain an authenticated copy of the details referred to in subsection (1) shall make an application to the Registrar accompanied by a fee as may be prescribed.

Failing to keep and maintain a register of beneficial owners of the company.

130E. If the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that a company-

- (a) has failed or fails to keep and maintain a register of beneficial owners of the company referred to in section 130A; or
- (b) has failed or fails to comply with any time period referred to in section 130A, the Registrar shall, in writing issue a directive to the company instructing the company to comply with the provisions of section 130A within a period of seven working days from the date of receiving the directive.

A claim for beneficial ownership.

130F. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, a claim to beneficial ownership of a company may not be claimed or be recognised for any lawful purpose, unless such beneficial ownership is disclosed and registered in the manner set out under this heading.

Offences.

130G. (1) A company which –

- (a) contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1), (3), (4), (7) or (8) of section 130A;
- (b) knowingly provides false or misleading details about a beneficial owner of the company or the nature and extent of the beneficial ownership of the company;
- (c) knowingly withholds details of a beneficial owner of the company that should be entered into the register referred to in subsection (1) of section 130A; or
- (d) knowingly makes a false entry into the register referred to in subsection (1) of section 130A, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Where an offence under this section is committed, then every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director or an officer of such company shall be deemed to have committed that offence unless such person proves that the offence was committed without such person's knowledge, or that such person exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(3) A shareholder, secretary or authorised person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions under subsection (2) of section 130A or subsection (3) of section 130A or 130C shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Special provisions relating to reporting, receiving, etc. of details relating to beneficial ownership of the company.

130H. (1) Every company incorporated or registered under the Companies Act, No. 07 of 2007 or any former written law relating to companies and having beneficial owners on the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025 shall, in the prescribed form and manner, forward to the Registrar the details relating to beneficial owners of that company in terms of section 130A within six months from the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025.

(2) Every depositary of a licensed stock exchange shall, within thirty days from the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025 in the prescribed form and manner, be required to verify, report, record and notify the Registrar of the details of the shareholders of a company who held ten per cent or more of the issued shares of the company on the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025.

(3) Every company shall, within thirty days from the date of operation of the Companies

(Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025, in the prescribed form and manner, be required to verify, report, record and notify the Registrar of the details of beneficial owners of the company on the date of operation of the Companies (Amendment) Act, No. 12 of 2025.

(4) A company which contravenes or fails to comply with any provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(5) In this section, the expression “former written law relating to companies” means any written law repealed by the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 145) or the Companies Act, No. 17 of 1982 or this Act.

Regulations.

130r. The Minister may make regulations in respect of all or any of the following matters: -

- (a) maintenance of the register of beneficial ownership of the company;
- (b) reporting of an acquisition of beneficial ownership of the company; and
- (c) for obtaining details relating to beneficial ownership of the company.

Interpretation.

130j. Under this heading -

“beneficial owner” means a natural person who ultimately owns or controls ten per cent or more of a company, in whole or in part, through, direct or indirect ownership or control of shares or voting rights or other ownership interest in that company, and also includes a natural person who exercises effective control through other means, and beneficial ownership is to be construed accordingly;

“effective control” includes a situation where control is exercised indirectly either through a chain of ownership or by appointment or removal of a director or by any other means of indirect control, such as the ability to take strategic decision that affects the operation of the company, its business practices or general direction of the company.”.

Amendment of section 206 of
the principal
enactment

8. Section 206 of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the repeal of subsections (2) and (3) thereof and the substitution therefor, of the following new subsections: -

“(2) Where a company intends to remove a director and appoint a new director in the place of the director so removed, a special notice shall be given to all shareholders of the company and it shall be the duty of the secretary to the company to send a copy of the special notice to the director who is to be removed. Such director shall be entitled to be heard at such meeting irrespective of whether or not such director is a shareholder of that company.

(3) Upon the receipt of the special notice under subsection (2), the director concerned may, within fourteen working days from the date of receipt of the special notice make a representation to the company in writing requiring the company to notify each shareholder of the company.

(4) The secretary to the company shall forthwith send a copy of the representation to every shareholder of the company. Where a copy of the representation has not been sent due to negligence of the company or due to the fact that the representation was received after the expiry of a period specified therein, the secretary to the company shall read out the representation at the meeting, if such director so requires:

Provided that where the company is able to satisfy the court that the provisions of this section are being abused by the director concerned in order to secure unnecessary publicity of a defamatory nature, the company may seek an order of the court for costs to be paid by such director, and to refrain from sending such representation to the shareholders or reading such representation at the meeting.”.
