AN ACT TO ENABLE THE SECRETARY TO THE TREASURY, OR ANY PUBLIC OFFICER AUTHORISED BY HIM, TO EXECUTE INDEMNITY BONDS REQUIRED FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF CEYLON BY ANY AUTHORITIES ABROAD PROVIDING TRAINING TO ANY PUBLIC OFFICERS OF CEYLON.

[Date of Assent: February 3, 1956]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Ceylon in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Government Indemnity Bonds Act, No. 6 of 1956.

Short title.

2. (1) Where a public officer is undergoing any approved training abroad and the authority providing such training requires the Government of Ceylon to execute a bond indemnifying such authority and the officers, servants and agents of such authority against all liability for any loss or damage—

Execution of indemnity bonds in respect of public officers undergoing training abroad.

(a) which is caused otherwise than by the negligence of such authority or of any officer, servant or agent of such authority, and

(b) which would not have occurred but for the training facilities afforded to such public officer, the Secretary to the Treasury or any public officer authorised by him in writing in that behalf may execute such bond acting in the name and on behalf of the Government of Ceylon.

(2) Any sum payable under any bond executed under sub-section (1) is hereby charged on the Consolidated Fund.

(3) In sub-section (1)—

“approved training” means any training approved by the Permanent Secretary to any Ministry;

“loss or damage” means the death of, or any bodily injury to, any person, the loss of, or any damage to, any property, and any costs or expenses; and “public officer” means any person holding a paid office as a servant of the Crown in respect of the Government of Ceylon.
