Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016

[Certified on 04th August, 2016]

L.D.—O. 4/2015

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE RIGHT OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION; TO SPECIFY GROUNDS ON WHICH ACCESS MAY BE DENIED; TO ESTABLISH THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION COMMISSION; TO APPOINT INFORMATION OFFICERS; TO SET OUT THE PROCEDURE AND FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

WHEREAS the Constitution guarantees the right of access to information in Article 14A thereof and there exists a need to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public authorities by giving effect to the right of access to information and thereby promote a society in which the people of Sri Lanka would be able to more fully participate in public life through combating corruption and promoting accountability and good governance.

Preamble.

BE it therefore enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows:-

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016.

Short title and date of operation.

(2) The provisions of this section, Part IV, sections 23, 36, 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44 shall come into operation on the date on which the certificate is endorsed in respect of this Act in terms of Article 79 of the Constitution.

(3) The provisions of all other sections of this Act, shall come into operation in respect of such public authorities or categories of public authorities and on such dates as may be prescribed by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette:

Provided however, that the dates so prescribed shall be at least six months after the certification referred to in subsection (2) above, and that all provisions of this Act shall be applicable to all public authorities no later than one year of such certification.

2 Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016

Responsibility to ensure effective implementation.

2. It shall be the responsibility of the Ministry of the Minister assigned the subject of mass media to ensure the effective implementation of the provisions of this Act.

PART I

APPLICATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE ACT

Right of access to information.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 5 of this Act, every citizen shall have a right of access to information which is in the possession, custody or control of a public authority.

(2) The provisions of this Act, shall not be in derogation of the powers, privileges and practices of Parliament.

Provisions of this Act to prevail over other written law.

4. The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law and accordingly in the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions of this Act and such other written law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

PART II

DENIAL OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION

When right of access may be denied.

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) a request under this Act for access to information shall be refused, where—

- (a) the information relates to personal information the disclosure of which has no relationship to any public activity or interest, or which would cause unwarranted invasion of the privacy of the individual unless the larger public interest justifies the disclosure of such information or the person concerned has consented in writing to such disclosure;

- (b) disclosure of such information–
  - (i) would undermine the defence of the State or its territorial integrity or national security;
  - (ii) would be or is likely to be seriously prejudicial to Sri Lanka's relations with any State, or in relation to international agreements or obligations under international law, where such information was given by or obtained in confidence;
- (c) the disclosure of such information would cause serious prejudice to the economy of Sri Lanka by disclosing prematurely decisions to change or continue government economic or financial policies relating to–
  - (i) exchange rates or the control of overseas exchange transactions;
  - (ii) the regulation of banking or credit;
  - (iii) taxation;
  - (iv) the stability, control and adjustment of prices of goods and services, rents and other costs and rates of wages, salaries and other income; or
  - (v) the entering into of overseas trade agreements;
- (d) information, including commercial confidence, trade secrets or intellectual property, protected under the Intellectual Property Act, No. 36 of 2003, the disclosure of which would harm the competitive position of a third party, unless the public authority is satisfied that larger public interest warrants the disclosure of such information;

4      Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016

- (e) the information could lead to the disclosure of any medical records relating to any person, unless such person has consented in writing to such disclosure;
- (f) the information consist of any communication, between a professional and a public authority to whom such professional provides services, which is not permitted to be disclosed under any written law, including any communication between the Attorney General or any officer assisting the Attorney General in the performance of his duties and a public authority;
- (g) the information is required to be kept confidential by reason of the existence of a fiduciary relationship;
- (h) the disclosure of such information would-
  - (i) cause grave prejudice to the prevention or detection of any crime or the apprehension or prosecution of offenders; or
  - (ii) expose the identity of a confidential source of information in relation to law enforcement or national security, to be ascertained;
- (i) subject to the provisions of section 29(2)(c), the information has been supplied in confidence to the public authority concerned by a third party and the third party does not consent to its disclosure;
- (j) the disclosure of such information would be in contempt of court or prejudicial to the maintenance of the authority and impartiality of the judiciary;
- (k) the disclosure of such information would infringe the privileges of Parliament or of a Provincial Council as provided by Law;

- (l) disclosure of the information would harm the integrity of an examination being conducted by the Department of Examination or a Higher Educational Institution;
- (m) the information is of a cabinet memorandum in relation to which a decision has not been taken; or
- (n) the information relates to an election conducted by the Commissioner of Elections which is required by the relevant election laws to be kept confidential.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a request for information shall not be refused on any of the grounds referred to therein, other than the grounds referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and (j) of that subsection, if the information requested for is over ten years old.

(3) Any information relating to any overseas trade agreement referred to in subsection (1) (c) (v) of this section, where the negotiations have not concluded even after a lapse of ten years shall not be disclosed.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a request for information shall not be refused where the public interest in disclosing the information outweighs the harm that would result from its disclosure.

(5) An information officer may seek the advice of the Commission, with regard to an issue connected with the grant of access to any information which is exempted from being disclosed under subsection (1), and the commission may as expeditiously as possible and in any event give its advice within fourteen days.

Severability
circumstances.

6. Where a request for information is refused on any of the grounds referred to in section 5, access shall nevertheless be given to that part of any record or document which contains any information that is not exempted from being disclosed under that section, and which can reasonably be severed from any part that contains information exempted from being disclosed.

PART III

PART V

APPOINTMENT OF INFORMATION OFFICERS AND PROCEDURE FOR GAINING ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Appointment of Information officers and designated officers.

23. (1) (a) Every public authority shall for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act, appoint, within three months of the date of coming into operation of this Act, one or more officers as information officers of such public authority and a designated officer to hear appeals.

(b) Until such time that an information officer is appointed under paragraph (a) the Head or Chief Executive Officer of the public authority shall be deemed to be the information officer of such public authority, for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every information officer shall deal with requests for information made to the public authority of which he or she has been appointed its information officer, and render all necessary assistance to any citizen making such request to obtain the information.

(3) The Information Officer may seek the assistance of any other officer as he or she may consider necessary, for the proper discharge of the duty imposed on him under this Act, and where assistance is sought from any such officer, it shall be the duty of such officer to provide the required assistance.

24. (1) Any citizen who is desirous of obtaining any information under this Act shall make a request in writing to the appropriate information officer, specifying the particulars of the information requested for:

Procedure for obtaining information.

Provided that where any citizen making a request under this subsection is unable due to any reason to make such request in writing, such citizen shall be entitled to make the request orally and it shall be the duty of the appropriate information officer to reduce such request to writing on behalf of the citizen.

(2) Where a citizen –

- (a) wishes to make a request to a public authority; or
- (b) has made a request to a public authority which does not comply with the requirements of this Act, the information officer concerned shall take all necessary steps to assist the citizen, free of charge, to make the request in a manner that complies with this Act.

(3) On receipt of a request, an information officer shall immediately provide a written acknowledgement of the request to the citizen.

(4) Where an information officer is able to provide an immediate response to a citizen making a request and such response is to the satisfaction of the requester, the information officer shall make and retain a record of the request and the response thereto.

(5) A citizen making a request for information shall:–

- (a) provide such details concerning the information requested as is reasonably necessary to enable the information officer to identify the information;

- (b) identify the nature of the form and language in which the citizen prefers access;
- (c) where the citizen making the request believes that the information is necessary to safeguard the life or liberty of a person, include a statement to that effect, including the basis for that belief; and
- (d) not be required to give any reason for requesting the information or any other personal details except those that may be necessary for contacting him or her.

(6) For the purpose of this section –

“writing” includes writing done through electronic means; and “appropriate information officer” means the Information Officer appointed to the public authority from which the information is being requested for.

Decision on requests submitted under section 24.

25. (1) An information officer shall, as expeditiously as possible and in any case within fourteen working days of the receipt of a request under section 24, make a decision either to provide the information requested for on the payment of a fee determined in accordance with the fee schedule referred to in section 14(e) or to reject the request on any one or more of the grounds referred to in section 5 of this Act, and shall forthwith communicate such decision to the citizen who made the request.

(2) Where a decision is made to provide the information requested for, access to such information shall be granted within fourteen days of arriving at such decision.

(3) Where the request for information concerns the life and personal liberty of the citizen, the response to it shall be made within forty-eight hours of the receipt of the request.

(4) Notwithstanding the requirement made for the payment of a fee under subsection (1), the Commission may specify the circumstances in which information may be provided by an information officer, without the payment of a fee.

(5) The period of fourteen days referred to in subsection (2) for providing access to information may be extended for a further period of not more than twenty one days where-

- (a) the request is for a large number of records and providing the information within fourteen days would unreasonably interfere with the activities of the public authority concerned; or
- (b) the request requires a search for records in, or collection of records from, an office of the public authority not situated in the same city, town or location as the office of the information officer that cannot reasonably be completed within the fourteen days.

(6) Where a period for providing information is to be extended for any of the circumstances referred to in subsection (5), the information officer shall, as soon as reasonably possible, but in any case within fourteen days, notify the citizen concerned of such fact giving the following reasons:-

- (a) the period of the extension; and
- (b) reasons for the extension.

(7) A citizen who is dissatisfied with the reasons given under subsection (6) may lodge an appeal with the designated officer.

26. (1) Every public authority shall display in a conspicuous place within the official premises and on a website of such public Authority if any, a notice specifying-

- (a) contact details of the Commission and the members of the Commission;

Public authority to display details of information officers and fees to be charged.

- (b) contact details of the information officer;
- (c) contact details of the designated officer;
- (d) fees to be charged for obtaining any information from such public Authority.

(2) The fee referred to in subsection (1)(d), shall be determined in accordance with the fee scheduled formulated by the Commission under section 14(e).

Manner in which information is to be provided.

27. (1) Where decision has been made to grant a request for information, such information shall be provided in the form in which it is requested for, unless the information officer is of the view that providing the information in the form requested for would not be detrimental to the safety or preservation of the relevant document or record in respect of which the request was made.

(2) Where an information officer is unable to provide the information in the manner requested for, it shall be the duty of such officer to consult the citizen and render all possible assistance to the citizen to determine an appropriate alternative means of providing access to the information and to facilitate compliance with such request.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1), a citizen, whose request for information has been granted, is entitled to:—

- (a) inspect relevant work, documents, records;
- (b) take notes, extracts or certified copies of documents or records;
- (c) take certified samples of material;
- (d) obtain information in the form of diskettes, floppies, tapes, video cassettes or any other electronic mode or through printouts where such information is stored in a computer or in any other device.

28. Where a request for information is refused by an information officer, such officer shall specify the following information in the communication to be sent under section 25(1), to the citizen who made the request—

Refusal of a request to be communicated.

- (a) the grounds on which such request is refused; and
- (b) the period within which and the person to whom an appeal against such refusal may be preferred under section 32 of this Act.

29. (1) Where a request made to an information officer by any citizen to disclose information which relates to, or has been supplied by a third party and such information has been treated as confidential at the time the information was supplied, the information officer shall, within one week of the receipt of such request, invite such third party by notice issued in writing, to make representation for or against such disclosure, within seven days of the receipt of the notice.

Where information requested for was supplied by a third party.

(2) An information officer shall be required in making his decision on any request made for the disclosure of information which relates to or has been supplied by a third party, to take into consideration the representations made by such third party under subsection (1), and shall, where the third party—

- (a) does not respond to the notice, disclose information requested for;
- (b) responds to the notice and agrees to the disclosure of the information requested for, disclose such information;
- (c) responds to the notice and refuses to the disclosure of the information requested for, deny access to the information requested for:

Provided however, the Commission may on the application made in that behalf by the citizen making the request, direct the disclosure of the information in question notwithstanding any objections raised by such third party against its disclosure, where the release of the information concerned demonstrably outweighs the private interest in non disclosure.

Exemption from suit or prosecution.

30. No liability, whether civil or criminal, shall attach to any public authority or any information officer or any other officer of such public authority, for anything which in good faith is done by such officer in the performance or exercise of any function or power imposed or assigned to such officer under this Act.
