- (i) in no circumstances shall the aggregate deduction from statutory income in respect of any loss exceed the amount of such loss ; and
- (ii) a deduction under this paragraph shall be made as far as possible from the statutory income of the first year of assessment after that in which the loss was incurred, and, so far as it cannot be so

(3) Where at any time within the three years of assessment immediately succeeding any year of assessment any person ceases to carry on any trade, business, profession, vocation or employment, he shall, on his making an application in that behalf to the Commissioner, be entitled to a deduction from the statutory income for that year of assessment of the amount of a loss incurred by him in that trade, business, profession, vocation or employment in any of those three years which, if it had been a profit, would have been assessable under this Act, and which has not been allowed against his statutory income of any year. For the purpose of allowing that deduction, the assessable income of that person for that year of assessment shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 103, be revised:

Provided that—

- (ii) a deduction under this sub-section shall be made as far as possible from the statutory income of the first year of assessment preceding that in which the loss was incurred, and, so far as it cannot be so made, from the statutory income of the next preceding year of assessment, and so on: and

year of assessment and the company has paid out of such statutory income dividends to any shareholders of the company, the amount of such deduction shall be reduced by the gross amount of such dividends.

(4) The whole or any part of that amount which in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (h) or paragraph (i) of sub-section (1) of section 10 cannot be deducted from the statutory income of any person for any year of assessment, shall, together with a sum equal to four per centum of that amount, be deducted as far as possible from the statutory income of the subsequent year of assessment, and, so far as it cannot be so deducted, it shall be deducted from the statutory income of the next succeeding year of assessment, and so on. Where under the preceding provisions of this sub-section a deduction is made from the statutory income of any of the succeeding years of assessment of such person, such deduction shall consist of the amount or part thereof which could not be deducted from the statutory income of the immediately preceding year of assessment and a sum equal to four per centum per annum of such amount or part thereof.

(5) For the purposes of sub-section (1) (b) and (c) and sub-section (3), the loss incurred during any year of assessment shall be computed, where the Commissioner so decides, by reference to the year ending on the day in such year of assessment which would have been adopted under section 12 (2) for the computation of statutory income of the following year of assessment if a profit had arisen.

(6) Where any person has been declared bankrupt or adjudged insolvent by a competent court, no loss incurred prior to the date of bankruptcy or insolvency shall be set off against income arising after such date.

(7) The amount of a loss for the purposes of this section shall be ascertained in the manner provided in this Act for the ascertainment of profits.

(8) No deduction under this section shall be allowable except on a claim made in writing by the person assessable, containing such particulars and supported by such proof as the Commissioner may require.

(2) That part of the First Schedule to this Act relating to non-resident individuals shall, in its application to an individual who is non-resident for a portion of the year preceding any year of assessment, have effect as if each of the sums specified in that part were reduced in the proportion which the number of days during which he is non-resident bears to the number of days in that year of assessment.

(3) Where, in consequence of the inclusion in the statutory income of an individual of—

- (a) a sum received in commutation of pension, or
- (b) a sum refunded under section 46 (1) or section 49 of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund Ordinance or under any regulation relating to any Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund or Scheme established for the Local Government Service which corresponds to the said section 46 (1) or section 49, or his taxable income for any year of assessment exceeds that which would be his taxable income if no such afore-mentioned sum were included in his statutory income, the excess, notwithstanding anything contained in any other sub-section, shall, if he was liable to income tax in the three immediately preceding years of assessment, be chargeable with tax at the average of the effective rates at which he was liable to tax in those three years, or, if he was liable to tax for only two of those three years, be chargeable with tax at the average of the effective rates at which he was liable to tax in those two years, or, if he was liable to tax for only one of those three years, be chargeable with tax at the effective rate at which he was liable to tax in that year :

Provided that for any year of assessment the rate of tax chargeable on such excess shall not exceed fifteen per centum :

Provided further that, where he was non-resident in any of the three immediately preceding years of assessment referred to in the preceding provisions of this sub-section, the rate at which the aforesaid excess is chargeable with tax shall be determined by the Commissioner, so, however, that the amount payable by him as tax on such excess shall not be more than that which would be payable if he had been resident :

Provided further that, where the excess referred to in the preceding provisions of this sub-section is in consequence of the inclusion in the statutory income of such sum as is referred to in paragraph (d) of those provisions and tax has already been paid in respect of that sum or any part thereof, the amount of the tax chargeable under those provisions on such excess shall be reduced by the amount of the tax already paid and, if the amount of the tax already paid is more than the tax so chargeable on such excess, no tax shall be so chargeable on such excess.

For the purposes of this sub-section, the effective rate of tax for any year of assessment shall be the percentage which the amount of tax payable for that year, without any deduction for any relief under sections 27, 67, 68, 70 and 71, bears to the amount of the assessable income for that year.

Provided that where the rate at which tax may be deducted from such dividend has been reduced under the provisions of sub-section (3), the set-off shall be adjusted as the Commissioner may direct.

(7) Where for any year of assessment the assessable income of a person includes a dividend from a resident company in the form of shares or debentures, he shall be entitled to a set-off, against the tax payable by him, of an amount equal to that which the company is entitled under sub-section (1) to deduct as tax on such dividend.

(4) Where the value of any property is, according to the preceding provisions of this section, an amount equal to its market value, then, if such market value cannot be ascertained because such property is not saleable in the open market, the value of such property shall be determined in the prescribed manner.

(b) where any property is transferred and an Assessor, having regard to the circumstances of the case, is of the opinion that the transfer is for a consideration which is not adequate, and the parties to the transfer, upon being requested in writing by the Assessor to show cause against such opinion within the time specified in the request, do not show cause within that time or show such cause as is considered by the Assessor to be inadequate, the amount by which the market value of that property at the date of the transfer exceeds the value of the consideration shall be deemed to be a gift made by the transferor ;

(c) where any property is transferred and an Assessor, having regard to the circumstances of the case, is of the opinion that the consideration for the transfer has not passed or is not intended to pass either in full or in part from the transferee to the transferor, and the parties to the transfer, upon being requested in writing by the Assessor to show cause against such opinion within the time specified in the request, do not show cause within that time or show such cause as is considered by the Assessor to be inadequate, the amount of the consideration which, in the opinion of the Assessor, has not passed or is not intended to pass shall be deemed to be a gift made by the transferor;

- (f) the gift of any property, on or after July 18, 1958, subject to a reservation in favour of the donor or any other person shall be deemed to take effect when it is made and not when the interest created by the reservation is extinguished.

41. (1) This Chapter shall not apply to any gift made by any individual—

- (a) of immovable property situated outside Ceylon;

From the amount so computed there shall be deducted all sums paid by him previously, whether by way of contributions in respect of taxable gifts to the Personal Tax, levied under the Personal Tax Act, No. 14 of 1959 or as gifts tax under this Act. The amount left after such deduction shall be the amount of the gifts tax in respect of his taxable gifts for the relevant year of assessment.

Provisions relating to special cases

A—HUSBAND AND WIFE AND CHILDREN

44. (1) The assessable income of the wife of any non-resident individual for any year of assessment shall be deemed to be part of the assessable income of her husband for that year.

(2) Where in the case of a married woman the marriage subsists during part only of a year preceding any year of assessment,—

(a) the provisions of Chapter V shall apply only to such part of the wife's assessable income for that year of assessment as bears to the whole of such income the same proportion as the number of days in that year of assessment during which the marriage subsists bears to the total number of days in the year preceding that year of assessment;

(b) the provisions of Chapter VII shall apply only to such part of the wife's taxable wealth for that year of assessment as bears to the whole of such wealth the same proportion as the number of days in that year of assessment during which the marriage subsists bears to the total number of days in the year preceding that year of assessment;

(c) the aforesaid provisions shall not apply to any source of profits or income or taxable wealth, as the case may be, which is not a source of profits or income or taxable wealth of the wife during that part of the year for which the marriage subsists.

(3) Where the husband is resident and the wife is non-resident during the whole or any part of the year preceding any year of assessment, the assessable income or taxable wealth of the wife for that year of assessment shall, for the purposes of this section, be determined as though she were resident during the whole of that preceding year, or that part of that preceding year, as the case may be.

(4) Where in the case of a married woman, the marriage is on a date after the first day of April in the year preceding any year of assessment or the marriage subsists for part only of that preceding year, then for such period of that preceding year commencing on the first day of April and ending on the date of the marriage, or for such period in that preceding year during which the marriage does not subsist, as the case may be, she shall be assessed separately on her income, in respect of income tax, and on her taxable wealth, in respect of wealth tax and the provisions of this Act as to collection and recovery shall apply to her accordingly.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a marriage shall not be deemed to subsist if the wife is living apart from her husband under the decree of a competent court or a duly executed deed of separation, or if the husband and wife are in fact separated in such circumstances that the separation is likely to be permanent.

(6) Where under sub-section (5) a marriage is not deemed to subsist, the allowance under section 21 in respect of any child shall,—

(a) if the spouses are living apart under the decree of a competent court or a duly executed deed of separation and the cost of maintaining that child is required by that decree or deed to be borne wholly by one spouse, be granted to that spouse,

(c) if that child is a child authorised by an adoption order made under the Adoption of Children Ordinance to be adopted by one spouse, be granted to that spouse, and, if that child is a child authorised by such an adoption order to be adopted by the two spouses jointly, be apportioned equally to the two spouses, and

(d) in any other case, be apportioned equally to the two spouses.

(7) Where a marriage is dissolved, the allowance under section 21 in respect of any child by such marriage shall—

The amount of the income tax so ascertained shall be apportioned among the husband and wife in the proportion which the assessable income of each of them bears to the aggregate assessable income of both of them.

(3) Where the wealth tax is assessed separately on the taxable wealth of the husband and on the taxable wealth of the wife as a result of a notice under sub-section (1), the value of the taxable wealth of the husband and the value of the taxable wealth of the wife and the value of the taxable wealth of any individual who, according to the returns of taxable wealth furnished by the husband and the wife, is a child or dependent relative of either or both of those spouses shall be aggregated and the wealth tax that would be payable by the husband if such notice had not been given shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The amount of the wealth tax so ascertained shall be apportioned among the husband and the wife in the proportion which the value of the taxable wealth of each of them bears to the value of the aggregate taxable wealth of both of them.

(4) Where wealth tax and income tax in respect of a husband and a wife are assessed separately in consequence of a notice under sub-section (1) and where the aggregate amount of the income tax and the wealth tax payable by the husband or wife is more than eighty per centum of the assessable income of such husband or wife, then the amount of the set-off against the wealth tax under section 105 shall not exceed such amount as would have been set off against the wealth tax that the husband would have paid if such notice had not been given.

(5) Where income tax and wealth tax are assessed separately in respect of a husband and a wife as a result of a notice under sub-section (1) and where the aggregate amount of the income tax or wealth tax payable by the husband and wife will be less than the amount of the income tax or wealth tax or income tax and wealth tax that would have been payable by the husband if such notice had not been given, then the amount of such deficit shall be apportioned among such husband and wife in the proportion which the assessable income or taxable wealth of each such person bears to the aggregate assessable income or taxable wealth of both of them.

(6) Where one spouse is resident and the other is non-resident and a notice under sub-section (1) is given by the resident spouse, the resident spouse may in such notice elect that the provisions of sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) be not applied, and in that event, the income from Ceylon or the value of the taxable wealth, as the case may be, of the non-resident spouse and any individual who is a child or dependent relative of either or both of those spouses and who is a non-resident shall, notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), be deemed to be the income or value of the taxable wealth of the resident spouse and shall be assessed accordingly, and in the computation of the income tax payable by the resident spouse, the non-resident spouse and any such individual shall not be regarded as a member of the family of the resident spouse.

(7) Where one spouse is resident and the other is non-resident, the resident spouse may be deemed to be the agent of the non-resident spouse for all the purposes of this Act and shall be liable to pay the whole of the tax chargeable in respect of the profits and income or taxable wealth of both, whether assessed jointly or severally.

(3) The income tax or wealth tax or any part thereof with which a beneficiary to a trust is chargeable in respect of his income or taxable wealth to which he is entitled from the trust may be recovered from the trustee of the trust, notwithstanding that no assessment has been made upon such trustee, and the provisions of this Act relating to collection and recovery of tax shall apply to such trustee. (2) A beneficiary shall be chargeable with income tax or wealth tax in respect of his share of the income, or of the taxable wealth, to which he is entitled from the estate of the deceased person.

(3) Where the income or the taxable wealth to which a beneficiary is entitled from the estate of a deceased person cannot be assessed, the executor shall be chargeable with income tax or wealth tax in respect of such income or taxable wealth.

(4) The income tax or the wealth tax or any part thereof with which a beneficiary is chargeable in respect of his income or taxable wealth to which he is entitled from the estate of a deceased person may, notwithstanding that no assessment has been made upon the executor of the deceased person, be recovered from such executor, and accordingly the provisions of this Act as to collection and recovery of tax shall apply to such executor. Such executor shall be entitled to deduct the amount of such tax or part thereof from the income which will be payable to such beneficiary.

and executors.

51. Where two or more persons act in the capacity of trustees of a trust or executors of a deceased person's estate, they may be charged jointly or severally with the income tax, wealth tax or gifts tax with which they are chargeable in that capacity under this Act, and shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of such taxes.

Assessment of
income.

52. (1) Where a trade, business, profession, vocation, or employment is carried on by two or more persons in partnership, the provisions of the following sub-sections shall apply.

C—PARTNERSHIPS

(2) An Assessor may give notice in writing to the precedent partner of the partnership requiring him to furnish within the time specified in such notice a return showing the profits or losses of the partnership from such trade, business, profession, vocation, or employment during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the year of assessment or during any other period in respect of which statutory income may be computed under section 12, ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this Act relating to the ascertainment of profits and income of a person, and showing also any interest, annuity, ground rent, or royalty payable by the partnership in respect of such trade, business, profession, vocation, or employment for the said period. The amount of such interest, annuity, ground rent, or royalty (except where it is payable by a person out of Ceylon to another person out of Ceylon) shall be deducted from the profits or added to the losses ascertained as above, and the figure thus arrived at shall be known as the divisible profit or loss for that period. The precedent partner shall further in such return declare any other income of the partnership for the said period together with the names and addresses of all the partners, and shall apportion among them the whole of the divisible profit or loss and other income in accordance with their shares in the partnership during the period in which the said profit or loss or income arose.

Where no active partner is resident in Ceylon, the return shall be furnished by the agent of the partnership in Ceylon.

(3) In computing the profits or losses of the partnership, nothing shall be deducted for salaries or other remuneration of partners or for interest on partners' capital, but such sums shall be taken into account in apportioning among the partners the divisible profit or loss and other income.

(4) The statutory income of any partner from the partnership shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of section 12 by treating his share of the divisible profit of the partnership as though it were profits of a trade, business, profession, vocation, or employment carried on or exercised by him, and his share of other income as though it accrued to him solely :

Provided that where no return has been made as required by sub-section (2) or a return made under that sub-section has not been accepted, the Assessor may estimate the statutory income of any partner from the partnership to the best of his judgment.

(5) The share of any partner of a divisible loss shall be a loss incurred by him within the meaning of section 15. The amount of such divisible loss and the partner's share thereof shall be determined by the Assessor and such determination may be questioned in an appeal against an assessment in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XII.

(6) Where a return has been made by the precedent partner in accordance with sub-section (2) and has been accepted by the Assessor, the income of each partner resident in Ceylon derived from the partnership shall be assessed upon him individually.

(7) The income of any non-resident partner or partners from the partnership shall be assessable in the name of the partnership or of any resident partner or of any agent of the partnership in Ceylon, and the income tax charged thereon shall be recoverable by all means provided in this Act out of the assets of the partnership, or from any partner, or from any such agent.

(8) Where no return has been made in accordance with sub-section (2) or the return has not been accepted by the Assessor, either as regards the amount of the profits or income or the allocation thereof among the partners, it shall be lawful for an assessment to be made in the name of the partnership on the estimated amount of the profits and income of the partnership arrived at in accordance with the provisions of this Act relating to the ascertainment of the assessable income of a person, and income tax thereon may be charged at such rate or rates as may be specified in that behalf in the First Schedule to this Act, and shall be recoverable out of the assets of the partnership, or from any partner, or from any agent of the partnership ; such assessment shall be subject to appeal by any person aggrieved thereby in the manner provided by Chapter XII, and the Commissioner or the Board of Review, as the case may be, may upon such appeal determine the profits and income and allocate the same among the partners and compute their statutory incomes from the partnership as provided in sub-section (4) and the income tax payable in respect thereof, which may be reassessed on the individual partners or may be recovered as tax on the assessment appealed against without any new assessment.

(9) Where under this section income has been assessed in the name of a partnership, and a change occurs in such partnership by reason of the retirement or death, or the dissolution of the partnership as to one or more of the partners, or the admission of a new partner, in such circumstances that one or more of the persons who were joint owners of the assets of such partnership continues or continue to be owner or joint owners of such assets, the person or partnership becoming owner of such assets in consequence of such change shall be charged with income tax or any part of it which remains unpaid, and the provisions of Chapter XIV shall apply to such person or partnership accordingly.

53. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining the profits from an estate, the succeeding provisions of this section shall apply in addition to, and shall be read with, Chapter II.

(2) There shall be deducted for the purposes of ascertaining the profits from an estate for any year of assessment—

(a) the cost of the maintenance of any immature area in the estate, and

(b) all expenses incurred by the owner in replanting the whole or any portion of the estate with palms, trees or bushes of a more or less permanent character for the purpose of producing coconut, rubber, tea, cocoa and other products, including the cost of clearing and preparing the land for such replanting.

(3) In this section—

(a) "estate" means any area of land used mainly for the purposes of permanent cultivation;

(b) "immature area" means an estate or part of an estate first planted in a particular year, in which the trees planted in that year are not fully mature, or not in full bearing.

E—RESIDENCE

What
constitutes residence.

54. (1) Where a company or body of persons has its registered or principal office in Ceylon, or where the control and management of its business are exercised in Ceylon, such company or body of persons shall be deemed to be resident in Ceylon for the purposes of this Act:

Provided that where a company registered in Ceylon proves that it is controlled and managed in the United Kingdom, and that it is treated for the purpose of United Kingdom income tax as resident in that country, it shall be treated as non-resident.

(2) An individual who arrives in Ceylon and who is in Ceylon for a period or periods amounting in the aggregate to more than six months during the year commencing from the date of his arrival shall, if he is in Ceylon at the end of that year, be deemed resident throughout that year; but if he is not in Ceylon at the end of that year, he shall be deemed resident from the date of his arrival to the date of his last departure during that year, and, subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), non-resident from the date of such last departure to the end of that year.

(3) An individual who has been deemed resident throughout a period of twenty-four consecutive months or who would have been deemed to be so resident if this Act had always been in force, shall be deemed to be resident until such time as he is continuously absent from Ceylon for an unbroken period of twelve months. When such person is so absent, he shall be deemed to be non-resident as from the date on which such absence commenced.

(4) Where an individual is deemed resident for any period in accordance with the provisions of any of the foregoing sub-sections, and at the end of such period is absent from Ceylon for less than three months, such period of absence shall for all the purposes of this section be treated as if it had been spent by him in Ceylon.

(5) Where an individual dies during the year preceding any year of assessment, and, in respect of the period from the commencement of such year to the date of his death, the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) that, although he is deemed to be resident under the foregoing sub-sections, he would, but for his death, have been deemed to be non-resident; or
- (b) that, although he is not deemed to be resident under the foregoing sub-sections, he would, but for his death, have been deemed to be resident; and
- (c) that there is chargeable for the said period a greater amount of income tax than would have been so chargeable if he had lived, the Commissioner may direct that such deceased individual shall be deemed to have been resident or non-resident, as the case may be, for the purpose of granting such relief as the circumstances of the case may require.

(6) An individual who is in the employment of the Government of Ceylon and who is resident in any other country during any period for the purposes of such employment shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be resident in Ceylon during that period if income tax or any tax of a corresponding nature is not payable in that country in respect of the official emoluments payable to him for such period :

Provided that any such individual who is a citizen or subject of any country other than Ceylon shall not, by reason of his being so deemed to be resident in Ceylon, be liable to income tax as a resident as respects any income, other than his official emoluments or other income arising in or derived from Ceylon.

Chargeability
of certain
profits of
non-resident
persons.

55. (1) Where a person in Ceylon, acting on behalf of a non-resident person, effects or is instrumental in effecting any insurance or sells or disposes of or is instrumental in selling or disposing of any property, whether such property is in Ceylon or is to be brought into Ceylon and whether the insurance, sale, or disposal is effected by such person in Ceylon or by or on behalf of the non-resident person outside Ceylon and whether the moneys arising therefrom are paid to or received by the non-resident person directly or otherwise, the profits arising from any such insurance, sale, or disposal shall be deemed to be derived by the non-resident person from business transacted by him in Ceylon, and the person in Ceylon who acts on his behalf shall be deemed to be his agent for all the purposes of this Act :

Provided that, where the property sold or disposed of is produced or manufactured by such non-resident person outside Ceylon, the profits from the sale or disposal shall—

(a) if the sale or disposal was by wholesale, be deemed to be not more than the profits which might reasonably be expected to be made by a merchant selling the property by wholesale, and

(b) if the sale or disposal was by retail, be deemed to be not more than the profits which might reasonably be expected to be made by a merchant selling the property by retail.

(2) The profits of a non-resident person from employment by a resident person shall be chargeable with income tax in so far as such profits arise from services or past services rendered in Ceylon.

56. A non-resident person shall be assessable either directly or in the name of his agent in respect of all his profits and income arising in or derived from Ceylon, whether such agent has the receipt of the income or not, and the income tax so assessed whether directly or in the name of the agent shall be recoverable by all means provided in this Act out of the assets of the non-resident person or from the agent. Where there are more agents than one they may be assessed jointly or severally in respect of the income of the non-resident person and shall be jointly and severally liable for income tax thereon.

Persons

behalf of a non-resident person.

57. (1) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) a person is closely connected with another person where the Commissioner in his discretion considers that such persons are substantially identical or that the ultimate controlling interest of each is owned or deemed under this section to be owned by the same person or persons;
- (b) the controlling interest of a company shall be deemed to be owned by the beneficial owners of its shares, whether held directly or through nominees, and shares in one company held by or on behalf of another company shall be deemed to be held by the shareholders of the last-mentioned company.

Liability of certain non-resident
persons.

(2) Where a non-resident person carries on business with a resident person with whom he is closely connected and the course of such business is so arranged that it produces to the resident person either no profits or less than the ordinary profits which might be expected to arise, the business done by the non-resident person in pursuance of his connection with the resident person shall be deemed to be carried on in Ceylon, and such non-resident person shall be assessable and chargeable with income tax in respect of his profits from such business in the name of the resident person as if the resident person were his agent, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) Where income tax is chargeable in respect of the profits arising from the sale of goods or produce manufactured or produced outside Ceylon by a non-resident person or by a person or persons with whom he is closely connected, the profits of such non-resident person for the purposes of this Act from the sale of such goods or produce shall be deemed to be not less than the profits which might reasonably be expected to have been made by a merchant, or, where the goods or produce are retailed by or on behalf of the non-resident person, by a retailer of the goods or produce sold, who had bought the same direct from a manufacturer or producer with whom he was not connected.

Where import duty levied on an ad valorem basis under the Customs Ordinance has been paid in Ceylon on such goods or produce, the sum to be deducted as the cost of such goods or produce on arrival in Ceylon shall not, for the purpose of computing the profits arising in Ceylon, be greater than the value on which such import duty has been so paid.

Profits of certain businesses to be computed on a percentage of the turnover.

58. Where the Commissioner in his discretion considers that the true amount of the profits of a non-resident person arising in or derived from Ceylon in respect of a trade or business cannot be readily ascertained, such profits may be computed on a fair percentage of the turnover of that trade or business in Ceylon :

Provided that the amount of such percentage may be questioned in an appeal against an assessment in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XII.

Profits of non-resident persons from sale of exported produce.

59. Where a non-resident person carries on in Ceylon any agricultural, manufacturing, or other productive undertaking, and sells any product of such undertaking outside Ceylon or for delivery outside Ceylon, whether the contract is made within or without Ceylon, the full profit arising from the sale in a wholesale market shall be deemed to be income arising in or derived from Ceylon within the meaning of section 2 :

Provided that, if it is shown that the profit has been increased through treatment of the product outside Ceylon other than handling, blending, sorting, packing, and disposal, such increase of profit shall not be deemed to be income arising in or derived from Ceylon.

Where any such product is not sold in a wholesale market, or is not sold at all, the said person shall be deemed to derive profits from Ceylon within the meaning of section 2 and such profits shall be deemed to be not less than the profits which might have been obtained if such person had sold such product wholesale to the best advantage.

60. (1) Where the assessable income for any year of assessment of an individual not resident in Ceylon consists solely of profits or income from services rendered in Ceylon or from business transacted in Ceylon and does not exceed one thousand rupees, such profits or income shall not be taxable.

Exemption of income of non-resident persons
in certain cases.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), where a non-resident person receives any sum by way of dividend from a non-resident company or by way of interest, annuity, ground rent, or royalty which has been disallowed or excepted under the provisions of section 15 (1) (a) (ii) or section 52 (2), such sum shall not be regarded as income of such non-resident person arising in or derived from Ceylon, and he shall not be chargeable with income tax or entitled to any relief from Ceylon tax under sections 70 and 71 or to any repayment of tax in respect thereof.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), any sum received by a non-resident person as the profits or income of that person arising from any Treasury Bill issued under the Local Treasury Bills Ordinance shall be exempt from the tax.

(4) The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) shall not operate so as to exclude any sum mentioned in either of those sub-sections from the computation of the profits of any trade or business carried on in Ceylon, where such sum forms part of the receipts of such trade or business.

G—SHIPPING

61. (1) Where a non-resident person carries on the business of shipowner or charterer and any ship owned or chartered by him calls at a port in

Profits of
non-resident
shipowners
or charterers.

Ceylon, his full profits arising from the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock, or goods shipped in Ceylon shall be deemed to arise in Ceylon :

Provided that this section shall not apply to goods which are brought to Ceylon solely for trans-shipment.

(2) Where for any accounting period such person produces the certificate mentioned in sub-section (3), the profits arising in Ceylon from his shipping business for such period, before deducting any allowance for depreciation, shall be a sum bearing the same ratio to the sums receivable in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock, and goods shipped in Ceylon as the ratio for the said period shown by that certificate of the total profits to the total sums receivable by him in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock, and goods :

Provided that where the said total profits have been computed on a basis which differs materially from that specified in the preceding provisions of this sub-section, the ratio of profits shall be adjusted so as to correspond as nearly as may be to the ratio which would have been arrived at if the profits had been computed in accordance with such provisions.

(3) The certificate shall be one issued by or on behalf of any income tax authority which assesses the full profits of the non-resident person from his shipping business, and shall certify for any accounting period as regards such business—

(a) the ratio of the profits, or where there are no profits, of the loss as computed for the purposes of income tax by that authority, without making any allowance by way of depreciation, to the total sums receivable in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock, or goods ; and

(b) the ratio of the allowance for depreciation as computed by that authority to the said total sums receivable in respect of the carriage of passengers, mails, live- stock, and goods.

(4) Where at the time of assessment the provisions of sub-section (2) cannot for any reason be satisfactorily applied, the profits arising in Ceylon may be computed on a fair percentage of the full sum receivable on account of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock, and goods shipped in Ceylon :

Provided that where any person has been assessed for any year of assessment by reference to such percentage, he shall be entitled to claim at any time within three years of the end of such year of assessment that his liability to income tax for that year be recomputed on the basis provided by sub-section (2).

(5) Where the Commissioner decides that the call of a ship belonging to a particular non-resident shipowner or charterer at a port in Ceylon is casual and that further calls by that ship or others in the same ownership are improbable, the provisions of this section shall not apply to the profits of such ship and no income tax shall be chargeable thereon.

62. The master of any ship owned or chartered by a non-resident person who is chargeable under the provisions of section 61 shall (though not to the exclusion of any other agent) be deemed the agent of such non-resident person for all the purposes of this Act.

Master of ship
to be an agent.

63. (1) In addition to any other powers of collection and recovery provided in this Act, the Commissioner may, where the income tax charged on the income of any person who carries on the business of shipowner or charterer has been in default for more than three months (whether such person is assessed directly or in the name of some other person), issue to the Principal Collector of Customs or other authority by whom clearance may be granted a certificate containing the name of the said person and particulars of the income tax in default. On receipt of such certificate, the Principal Collector of Customs or other authority shall be empowered and is hereby required to refuse clearance from any port in Ceylon to any ship owned wholly or partly or chartered by such person until the said tax has been paid.

where income
tax is in arrear.

(2) No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted or maintained against the Principal Collector of Customs or other authority in respect of a refusal of clearance under this section, nor shall the fact that a ship is detained under this section affect the liability of the owner, charterer, or agent to pay harbour dues and charges for the period of detention.

Application of sections 61 to 63 to profits of non-resident owners of aircraft.

64. (1) The provisions of sections 61 to 63 shall apply to every non-resident person who carries on business as the owner or charterer of aircraft in like manner as they apply in the case of a non-resident person who carries on the business of shipowner or charterer.

(2) In the application of the provisions of sections 61 to 63 to any non-resident person who carries on business as the owner or charterer of aircraft—

- (a) "ship" shall be deemed to include aircraft, and "shipowner" shall be construed accordingly;
- (b) "port" shall be deemed to include a customs aerodrome;
- (c) "shipped" shall be deemed to include the meaning 'loaded into an aircraft';
- (d) "trans-shipment" shall be deemed to include transfer from one aircraft to another or in either direction between an aircraft and some other vessel;
- (e) "shipping business" shall be deemed to include the business of the carriage of passengers, mails, livestock, or goods by aircraft;
- (f) any reference to the master of a ship shall be deemed to include a reference to the person having for the time being control or charge of an aircraft;
- (g) any reference to the granting of clearance to any ship shall be deemed to include a reference to the doing of any act which, under the provisions of any written law, is authorised to be done in relation to an aircraft in lieu of the granting of a certificate of clearance under section 63 of the Customs Ordinance, and any reference to the refusal of clearance shall be construed accordingly;

(h) "harbour dues and charges" shall be deemed to include any charges payable to the Government of Ceylon or to any person on account of the landing, stay or housing at a customs aerodrome of any aircraft arriving in or departing from Ceylon.

H—INSURANCE

65. (1) The profits of a company, whether mutual or proprietary, from the business of life insurance shall be the investment income of the Life Insurance Fund less the management expenses (including commission) attributable to that business :

*Ascertainment
of profits of

Provided that where such a company which is not resident in Ceylon transacts life insurance business in Ceylon whether directly or through an agent, the profits therefrom shall be ascertained by reference to the same proportion of the total investment income of the Life Insurance Fund of the company as the premiums from life insurance business in Ceylon bear to the total life insurance premiums received by it, subject to a deduction of agency expenses in Ceylon (including commission) and a fair proportion of the expenses of the head office of the company, due account being taken in each case by set-off against such expenses of any income or profits other than life insurance premiums or investment income.

(2) The profits of a non-resident company, whether mutual or proprietary, from the business of insurance (other than life insurance) shall be ascertained by taking the gross premiums from insurance business in Ceylon (less any premiums returned to the insured and premiums paid on reinsurance) and deducting therefrom a reserve for unexpired risks at the percentage adopted by the company in relation to its operations as a whole for such risks at the end of the period for which the profits are being ascertained, and adding thereto a reserve similarly calculated for unexpired risks outstanding at the commencement of such period, and from the net amount so arrived at deducting the actual losses (less the amount recovered in respect thereof under reinsurance), the agency expenses in Ceylon, and a fair proportion of the expenses of the head office of the company, due account being taken in each case by set-off against such expenses of any income or profits other than premiums.

(3) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that by reason of the limited extent of the business transacted in Ceylon by a non-resident insurance company it would be unreasonable to require the company to furnish the particulars necessary for the application of sub-sections (1) and (2) he may, notwithstanding the provisions of those sub-sections, permit the profits of the company to be ascertained by reference to the proportion of the total profits and income of the company corresponding to the proportion which its premiums from insurance business in Ceylon bear to its total premiums, or any other basis which appears to him to be equitable.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "investment income of the Life Insurance Fund" means, in the case of a company whose sole business is life insurance, the whole of its income from investment, and, in the case of any other company, such part of its income from investments as appears fairly attributable to its life insurance business.

I—INTEREST, ETC., PAYABLE TO PERSONS OUTSIDE CEYLON

income tax from
interests, etc.

66. (1) Where any person in Ceylon pays or credits to any person or partnership out of Ceylon any sum falling due as—

- (a) interest on debentures, mortgages, loans, deposits, or advances ; or
- (b) rent, ground rent, royalty, or annuity, which is payable either in respect of property in Ceylon or out of income arising in Ceylon, whether such sum is due from him or from another person, or from a partnership, he shall be entitled, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, to deduct income tax on such sum at a rate of 33½ per centum, and the amount of tax so deductible shall be a debt due from such person to the Crown and shall be recoverable forthwith as such or may be assessed and charged upon such person in addition to any income tax otherwise payable by him under this Act :

Provided that—

(a) the Commissioner may give notice in writing for any year of assessment to any person in Ceylon, as regards a particular person or partnership out of Ceylon, requiring him to deduct, from any sums paid or credited by him to that person or partnership as aforesaid, income tax on such sums at a rate higher than $33\frac{1}{3}$ per centum, but not greater than the highest rate at which tax is chargeable for that year upon the taxable income of an individual; and the tax so deductible shall be recoverable and chargeable as aforesaid; and

(b) the preceding provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to any interest paid out of income not arising in Ceylon, or to interest on any loan or advance made by a banker.

(2) Any person who deducts income tax in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) from any sum paid or credited to a person or partnership out of Ceylon shall thereupon issue to such person or partnership a statement in writing showing—

- (a) the gross amount of such payment;
- (b) the rate and amount of the tax so deducted; and
- (c) the net amount actually paid.

(3) Where the assessable income of a person includes a sum from which income tax has been deducted in accordance with sub-section (1), he shall be entitled, on production of a statement relating to such sum issued in accordance with sub-section (2), to a set-off against the tax payable by him of the amount of tax shown on such statement.

(4) Where in consequence of the provisions of this section income tax is deducted during any year of assessment from the income of a person out of Ceylon arising from a source in respect of which that person is liable to be assessed for the same year of assessment either directly or through an agent, and no set-off is due under the provisions of sub-section (3) for that year of assessment, the Commissioner may grant such relief as he may decide to be reasonable.

(5) Where for any year of assessment the whole or any part of the assessable income of any non-resident person, other than an individual who is entitled to relief under section 70 (2) and has claimed such relief, is composed of income from which income tax has been deducted by virtue of sub-section (1) of section 27 or sub-section (1) of this section, and the rate (hereinafter referred to as the "new rate") at which tax is deductible under the aforesaid sub-section for that year of assessment is either greater or less than the corresponding rate for the year preceding the year of assessment in which the tax was so deducted, the income from which the tax has been so deducted shall be treated for all purposes of this Act as if income tax had been deducted therefrom at the new rate.

In any case where income tax is, under the preceding provisions of this sub-section, deemed to have been deducted at a rate higher than a rate at which tax was actually deducted, no person shall be entitled to any repayment by reason only that such tax is so deemed to have been deducted at such higher rate.

J—DONATIONS

Relief on account of donations to the Government of Ceylon or to approved charities.

67. (1) In this section, "approved donation" means a donation not less in amount than one thousand rupees—

- (a) made in money or otherwise to the Government of Ceylon, or
- (b) made in money to any such public charitable trust or institution as is declared by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette to be an approved charity for the purposes of this section.

For the purposes of this section, the amount of a donation made to the Government of Ceylon otherwise than in money shall be the value of such donation, and such value shall—

- (i) be the actual cost to the donor of the property donated, and
- (ii) where the actual cost cannot be ascertained, be the market value of the property donated.

(2) Where an approved donation has been made by any person, then—

- (i) the actual amount of the donation; or
- (ii) an amount representing one-tenth of the assessable income of that person for the year of assessment in which the donation is made, or if that person is a company an amount representing one-twentieth of the assessable income of that company; or
- (iii) fifty thousand rupees, whichever amount is the least, shall, for the purposes of sub-section (3) of this section, be the permitted allowance in relation to that donation.

(3) Where any person or member of a family has in the year preceding any year of assessment made an approved donation, such person or the head of that family shall be entitled on account thereof to such relief from the income tax as will secure that the tax payable by that person or the head of that family is reduced to the amount which would have been payable as tax if the permitted allowance in relation to that donation had been deducted from the statutory income of that person or the head of that family:

Provided that the relief from tax on account of that donation shall not exceed one-half of the permitted allowance in relation to that donation.

(4) Where a person has in any year of assessment made two or more donations, whether to the same approved charity or to different such charities, or to the Government of Ceylon, or to one or more approved charities and to the Government of Ceylon, the aggregate amount of the donations, if such amount is not less than one thousand rupees, shall be treated as one approved donation for the purposes of this section.

Provided, however, that such effective rate shall not exceed twenty-five per centum in the case of premia on life insurance policies or for the purchase of annuities, and fifteen per centum in the case of contributions to a provident fund or pension fund, and the amount on which tax is calculated at such effective rate shall not exceed one-sixth of his assessable income for such year of assessment or four thousand rupees, whichever amount is less :

Provided further that, in the case of any person who does not contribute to a provident or pension fund approved by the Commissioner or who is not entitled to a pension on cessation of employment, such effective rate shall not exceed twenty-five per centum for the purchase of annuities and the amount on which tax is calculated at such effective rate shall not exceed one-sixth of his assessable income for such year of assessment or eight thousand rupees whichever amount is less :

Provided, further, that the preceding provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to—

93. (1) Every person who is in the opinion of an Assessor chargeable with income tax, wealth tax or gifts tax shall be assessed by him as soon as may be after the expiration of the time specified in the notice requiring him to furnish a return of income, wealth or gifts under section 82 :

Provided that the Assessor may assess any person at any time, whether or not such time is before the commencement of the year of assessment to which the assessment relates, if he is of opinion that such person is about to leave Ceylon, or that for any other reason it is expedient to do so.

(2) Where a person has furnished a return of income, wealth or gifts, the Assessor may either—

- (a) accept the return and make an assessment accordingly ; or
- (b) if he does not accept the return, estimate the amount of the assessable income, taxable wealth or taxable gifts of such person and assess him accordingly.

(3) Where a person has not furnished a return of income, wealth or gifts and the Assessor is of the opinion that such person is chargeable with income tax, wealth tax or gifts tax, he may estimate the amount of the assessable income, taxable wealth or taxable gifts of such person and assess him accordingly, but such assessment shall not affect the liability of such person to a penalty by reason of his failure or neglect to deliver a return.

Additional assessments.

94. Where it appears to an Assessor that for any year of assessment any person chargeable with income tax, wealth tax or gifts tax, has not been assessed or has been assessed at less than the proper amount, the Assessor may, within the year of assessment or within six years after the expiration thereof, assess such person at the amount or additional amount at which according to his judgment such person ought to have been assessed, and the provisions of this Act as to notice of assessment, appeal, and other proceedings shall apply to such assessment or additional assessment and to the tax charged thereunder :

Provided that where the non-assessment or under-assessment of any person for any year of assessment is due to fraud or wilful evasion, such assessment or additional assessment may be made at any time after the expiration of that year of assessment.

95. (1) An Assessor shall give a notice of assessment to each person who has been assessed stating the amount of income, wealth or gifts assessed and the amount of tax charged.

Notice of assessment.

(2) Where by reason of an amendment of the law or an amendment of the rate of tax it is necessary to vary the amount of tax charged in any notice of assessment, the Assessor may give such notification as may be necessary to the person assessed in that notice of assessment; and any notification so given shall, as regards any particulars of the assessment contained in the notification, which have not been included in the notice of assessment, have effect as if the notification were a notice of assessment.

96. (1) No notice, assessment, certificate, or other proceeding purporting to be in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be quashed, or deemed to be void or voidable, for want of form, or be affected by reason of a mistake, defect, or omission therein, if the same is in substance and effect in conformity with or according to the intent and meaning of this Act, and if the person assessed or intended to be assessed or affected thereby is designated therein according to common intent and understanding.

Validity of assessments, etc.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-section (1), an assessment shall not be impeached or affected—

(a) by reason of a mistake therein as to the name or surname of the person chargeable, the amount of income, wealth or gifts assessed, or the amount of tax charged; or

(b) by reason of any variance between the assessment and the notice thereof, if the notice of such assessment is duly served on the person intended to be charged and contains in substance and effect the particulars mentioned in paragraph (a) of this sub-section.

Provided that the Commissioner, upon being satisfied that owing to absence from Ceylon, sickness or other reasonable cause, the appellant was prevented from appealing within such period, shall grant an extension of time for preferring the appeal.

(2) Every appeal shall be preferred by a petition in writing addressed to the Commissioner and shall—

(a) if the appeal is against an assessment of income tax, set out the source or sources of income specified in the notice of assessment against which the appeal is preferred and the grounds of such appeal ; or

(b) if the appeal is against an assessment of wealth tax or gifts tax, set out the grounds of such appeal ; or

(c) if the appeal is against the amount of the valuation of any property, specify that property and set out the grounds on which such valuation is erroneous and the value that should be put on that property.

(3) Every petition of appeal shall bear uncancelled stamps to the value of ten rupees :

Provided that the aforesaid sum shall be refunded if the appeal is allowed wholly or partly, or, if in the opinion of the Commissioner, the appeal is not frivolous.

(4) Where the assessment appealed against has been made in the absence of a return, the petition of appeal shall be sent together with a return duly made.

(5) Every petition of appeal which does not conform to the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) shall not be valid.

(6) On receipt of a valid petition of appeal, the Commissioner may cause further inquiry to be made by an Assessor, and if in the course of such inquiry an agreement is reached as to the matters specified in the petition of appeal, the necessary adjustment of the assessment shall be made.

(7) Where no agreement is reached between the appellant and the Assessor in the manner provided in sub-section (6), the Commissioner shall, by notice given in writing to the appellant, require the appellant to transmit to him within a period of thirty days after the date of such notice, a list of documents upon which, and the names and designations of the persons on whose evidence, the appellant proposes to rely in support of his appeal.

(8) The Commissioner shall, as soon as may be after the transmission to him of the list referred to in sub-section (7), give notice in writing to the appellant of his determination on the appeal.

(b) require the appellant in person or by authorised representative to be present, together with such documents and witnesses as may be specified in such notice, at such place and on such date and at such time as may be specified in the notice to be heard on such matters relating to the appeal as may be specified in such notice.

(10) Where any appellant fails to comply with the requirements of any notice given under sub-section (7) or sub-section (9), the Commissioner shall dismiss the appeal:

Provided that if the appellant shall within a reasonable time after the dismissal of an appeal satisfy the Commissioner that he was prevented from complying with the requirements of such notice by reason of absence from Ceylon, sickness or other unavoidable cause, the Commissioner may vacate the order of dismissal.

(11) The Commissioner shall have power to summon any person whom he may consider able to give evidence respecting the appeal to attend before him and may examine such person on oath or otherwise. Any person so attending may be allowed by the Commissioner any reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by such person in so attending.

(12) Where the Commissioner requires the appellant or his authorised representative to be heard on any matter relating to the appeal and specified in the notice given under sub-section (9) the appellant shall not at such hearing be allowed—

- (a) to produce any document which is not included in the list furnished by him under sub-section (7) or to adduce the evidence of any witness whose name does not appear in that list, or
- (b) to raise any point which is not specified in the petition of appeal.

Assessments or amended assessments to be final.

Provided that nothing in this Act shall prevent an Assessor from making an assessment or additional assessment for any year of assessment which does not involve re-opening any matter which has been determined on appeal for the year.

104. (1) Where in an assessment made in respect of any person the amount of income assessed or taxable wealth or taxable gifts exceeds that specified as his income or taxable wealth or taxable gifts in his return and the assessment is final and conclusive under section 103, the Commissioner may, unless that person proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that there is no fraud or wilful neglect involved in the disclosure of income or wealth or gifts made by that person in his return, in writing order that person to pay as a penalty for making an incorrect return a sum not exceeding two thousand rupees and a sum equal to twice the tax on the amount of the excess.

Penalty for incorrect return.

(2) Any person in respect of whom an order is made under sub-section (1) may, within twenty-one days after the notification of the order to him, appeal therefrom in writing to the Board of Review. The appeal shall state the grounds of objection to the order.

(3) The provisions of section 101 shall as far as possible apply to the hearing and disposal of any appeal under the preceding provisions of this section. The Board of Review may confirm, reduce, increase or annul the penalty imposed by the order of the Commissioner from which an appeal is made, but any increase of such penalty shall not be in excess of the maximum amount which the Commissioner may impose under sub-section (1) as such penalty.

CHAPTER XIIIPayment of Tax

106. (1) The income tax, wealth tax or gifts tax, charged by any assessment shall be paid in the manner directed in the notice of assessment, or in any other notice given to the person liable to pay such tax, on or before a date specified in such notice. tax.

(2) Tax shall be paid notwithstanding any appeal against the assessment, unless the Commissioner orders that payment of the tax or any part thereof be held over pending the result of such appeal, and the amount of the tax or part thereof so held over shall be deemed not to be in default.

(3) Where the Commissioner is of opinion either that the tax or any part thereof held over under sub-section (2) is likely to become irrecoverable, or that the appellant is unreasonably delaying the prosecution of his appeal, he may revoke any order made under that sub-section and make such fresh order as the case may appear to him to require and the amount of any tax not paid on or before such date as may be specified in the fresh order shall be deemed to be in default.

(4) Where, upon the final determination of an appeal under Chapter XII, or upon any order made by the Commissioner, any tax which has been held over under sub-section (2) becomes payable or the tax charged by the original assessment is increased, the Commissioner shall give to the appellant a notice in writing fixing a date on or before which any tax or balance of tax shall be paid. Any tax not so paid shall be deemed to be in default.

(5) Where any tax is in default, a sum equivalent to five per centum of the amount in default shall be added to the tax and the Commissioner shall give notice in writing to the person by whom the tax is payable requiring him to pay the tax together with such interest on or before a date specified in the notice, and if payment is not so made, the Commissioner may add a further sum or further sums not exceeding fifteen per centum of the tax in default until the tax is recovered.

(6) Where, upon the final determination of an appeal under Chapter XII, any tax in default to which any sum or sums under sub-section (5) has or have been added is reduced, then such sum or sums shall be calculated on the tax as so reduced.

Employer to deduct income tax due from employee from his remuneration and pay to the Commissioner.

107. (1) Where the Commissioner so directs by notice in writing to an employer, such employer shall, during the period commencing on the first day of September in a year of assessment and ending on the thirty-first day of August in the succeeding year of assessment, deduct the amount of the income tax payable in respect of the first-mentioned year of assessment by an individual in his employment (hereinafter referred to as an "employee") in such number of monthly instalments as may be specified in such notice; and thereafter, until such employer receives a fresh direction from the Commissioner, he shall, whether such employee has been assessed or not for the succeeding year of assessment, continue to deduct each month, commencing from September in such succeeding year from the remuneration payable to such employee an amount equivalent to the amount so deducted in the last month of the aforesaid period and the amount so deducted from September in such succeeding year of assessment shall be set off against the tax payable by such employee for the succeeding year of assessment. The employer shall pay the amount so deducted each month from the remuneration of an employee to the Commissioner.

(2) The Commissioner may at any time after he has given a direction under sub-section (1) withdraw such direction by notice given in writing to the employer if the employee has made arrangements to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for the payment of his income tax.

(3) Where any employee from whose remuneration tax is to be deducted by his employer is about to leave or leaves his employment, the employer shall deduct the whole amount of the tax or any balance thereof which he has been directed to deduct by the notice given to him by the Commissioner from all or any payments made by him to such employee after he becomes aware that such employee is leaving his employment.

(4) Where any employee from whose remuneration tax is to be deducted under the preceding provisions of this section has left the employment of the employer to whom a direction under sub-section (1) is given, or where for any other reason the employer is unable to deduct the whole or any part of the tax specified in such direction, he shall forthwith give notice in writing to the Commissioner acquainting him with the facts of the matter, and any tax which the employer has not deducted or cannot deduct shall immediately become payable by the employee and shall be deemed to be in default fourteen days after the date of a notice thereof given to him.

(5) Where any employer is unable to deduct any tax which such employer has been directed to deduct under sub-section (1) from any remuneration and has failed to give notice to the Commissioner as provided in sub-section (4) within fourteen days of the date on which such deduction should have been made, or where such employer has deducted or could have deducted tax in any month from any remuneration in accordance with a direction under sub-section (1) and has not paid as directed by the Commissioner the amount of such tax to the Commissioner by the fifteenth day of the following month, such employer, if he is an individual, shall be liable, or where such employer is a company or a body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, the secretary, manager or other principal officer of such company or body shall be personally liable, for the whole of the tax which such employer has been directed to deduct under this section and such tax may be recovered from such individual, secretary, manager or other principal officer by all means provided in this Act, and such tax shall be deemed to be in default for the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 106.

(6) Every employer who deducts tax from the remuneration of any employee in accordance with a direction under sub-section (1) shall on request made by such employee issue to him a certificate of the amount of tax deducted in the prescribed form.

CHAPTER XIV

Recovery of Tax

Tax to include fines, etc.

108. In this Chapter, "tax" includes any sum or sums added to income tax, wealth tax or gifts tax under section 106 (5) by reason of default, together with any fines, penalties, fees, or costs incurred.

Tax to be a first charge.

109. (1) Save as provided in sub-section (2), tax in default shall be a first charge upon all the assets of the defaulter:

Provided that—

- (i) such charge shall not extend to or affect any assets sold by the defaulter to a bona fide purchaser for value prior to the seizure of the same in accordance with the provisions of section 110;
- (ii) as regards immovable property, the tax shall not rank in priority to any lease or encumbrance created bona fide for value and registered prior to the date of such seizure; and
- (iii) as regards movable property, where tax for more than one year of assessment is in default, the tax for one year only, to be selected by the Commissioner, shall rank in priority to any lien or encumbrance created bona fide for value prior to the date of default.

(2) A receiver shall pay out of the assets under his control the tax charged or chargeable for one complete year of assessment prior to the date of the insolvency, bankruptcy, or liquidation, to be selected by the Commissioner, as a first charge on such assets and any other tax charged or chargeable for periods prior to such date shall be an unsecured debt:

Provided that where the receiver proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that any tax to which this sub-section applies is excessive, the Commissioner may, notwithstanding the provisions of section 103, review the assessment in respect of which the tax is charged and make such adjustments as he may in his discretion think reasonable.

110. (1) The Commissioner may appoint persons to be tax collectors.

Recovery of
tax by seizure
and sale.

(2) (a) Where any tax is in default, the Commissioner may issue a certificate to a Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent, Fiscal, Deputy Fiscal, or tax collector containing particulars of such tax and the name of the defaulter, and the officer to whom such certificate is issued shall be empowered and is hereby required to cause the tax to be recovered from the defaulter named in the certificate by seizure and sale of his movable property.

(b) The said seizure shall be effected in such manner as the said officer shall deem most expedient in that behalf, and any property so seized shall be kept for five days at the costs and charges of the defaulter. If the defaulter does not pay the tax in default together with the costs and charges within the said five days, the Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent, Fiscal, Deputy Fiscal, or tax collector shall cause the said property to be sold by public auction.

(c) The sum realised by the sale shall be applied—

- (i) firstly in payment of the costs and charges of seizing, keeping, and selling the property, and
- (ii) secondly in satisfaction of the tax in default, and any balance shall be restored to the owner of the property seized.

(3) Where any tax is in default, and the Commissioner is of opinion that recovery by the means provided in sub-section (2) is impracticable or inexpedient, he may issue a certificate to a District Court having jurisdiction in any district where the defaulter resides or in which any property movable or immovable owned by the defaulter is situate, containing particulars of such tax and the name or names of the person or persons by whom the tax is payable, and the court shall thereupon direct a writ of execution to issue to the Fiscal authorising and requiring him to seize and sell all and any of the property movable and immovable of the defaulter, or such part thereof as he may deem necessary for recovery of the tax, and the provisions of sections 226 to 297 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such seizure and sale.

(4) Whenever the Commissioner issues a certificate under this section, he shall at the same time issue to the defaulter, whether resident or non-resident, a notification thereof by personal service, registered letter sent through the post or telegraph; but the non-receipt of such notification by the defaulter shall not invalidate proceedings under this section.

Proceedings for recovery before a Magistrate.

111. (1) Where the Commissioner is of opinion in any case that recovery of tax in default by seizure and sale is impracticable or inexpedient, or where the full amount of the tax has not been recovered by seizure and sale, he may issue a certificate containing particulars of such tax and the name and last known place of business or residence of the defaulter to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the division in which such place is situate. The Magistrate shall thereupon summon such defaulter before him to show cause why further proceedings for the recovery of the tax should not be taken against him, and in default of sufficient cause being shown, the tax in default shall be deemed to be a fine imposed by a sentence of the Magistrate on such defaulter for an offence punishable with fine only or not punishable with imprisonment, and the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 312 (except paragraphs (a), (c), and (h) thereof) of the Criminal Procedure Code, relating to default of payment of a fine imposed for such an offence shall thereupon apply, and the Magistrate may make any direction which, by the provisions of that sub-section, he could have made at the time of imposing such sentence:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorise or require the Magistrate in any proceeding thereunder to consider, examine, or decide the correctness of any statement in the certificate of the Commissioner.

(2) Nothing in sub-sections (2) to (5) of section 312 of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply in any case referred to in sub-section (1) of this section.

(3) In any case referred to in sub-section (1) in which the defaulter is sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of the fine deemed by that sub-section to have been imposed on him, the Magistrate may allow time for the payment of the amount of the said fine or direct payment of that amount to be made by instalments.

(4) The court may require bail to be given as a condition precedent to allowing time under sub-section (1) for showing cause as therein provided or under sub-section (3) for the payment of the fine ; and the provisions of Chapter XXXVI of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply where the defaulter is so required to give bail.

(5) Where payment in instalments is directed under sub-section (3) and default is made in the payment of any one instalment, the same proceedings may be taken as if default had been made in payment of all the instalments then remaining unpaid.

(6) In any proceeding under sub-section (1), the Commissioner's certificate shall be sufficient evidence that the tax has been duly assessed and is in default, and any plea that the tax is excessive, incorrect, or under appeal shall not be entertained :

Provided that where any person proceeded against has not appealed within the proper time against the assessment in respect of which the tax is charged and alleges that the tax is in excess of the sum which would have been charged if he had so appealed, the court may adjourn the matter for a period not exceeding thirty days to enable such person to submit to the Commissioner his objection to the tax.

(7) The Commissioner shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 103, consider any objection made under sub-section (6) and give his decision thereon, which shall be final, and shall be certified by him to the Magistrate, and proceedings under this section shall thereupon be resumed to enforce payment of the tax as reduced or confirmed under such decision. Where no objection has been made to the Commissioner within the period for which the matter was adjourned under that sub-section, the Commissioner shall issue a certificate to that effect and proceedings under this section shall be resumed to enforce payment of the tax.

112. (1) Where tax payable by any person is in default and it appears to the Commissioner to be probable that any person—

tax out of debts, etc.

- (a) owes or is about to pay money to the defaulter or his agent ; or
- (b) holds money for or on account of the defaulter or his agent ; or

- (c) holds money on account of some other person for payment to the defaulter or his agent; or
- (d) has authority from some other person to pay money to the defaulter or his agent, the Commissioner may give to such person notice in writing (a copy of which shall be sent by post to the defaulter) requiring him to pay any such moneys not exceeding the amount of the tax in default to the officer named in such notice.
