'(1A) Sub-section (1) of this section shall, for each year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1965, have effect—

(a) as though, in the first proviso to that sub-section, there were substituted—

(i) for the words "fifteen per centum", the words "twenty-five per centum";

(ii) for the words "one-sixth of his" the words "one-fourth of his"; and

(iii) for the words "four thousand rupees", the words "ten thousand rupees"; and

(b) as though, in the second proviso to that sub-section, there were substituted, for the words "further that," of the following:—

"further that for any year of assessment ending prior to April 1, 1965,"; and

(2) in sub-section (2) of that section, by the substitution, for the words "Where the assessable income", of the words "Where the entirety of the assessable income".

*Amendment of
the principal Act.*

30. (1) Section 69 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows :—

(a) in sub-section (1) of that section, in the definition of "approved investment", by the substitution, in paragraph (b) of that definition, for the words "Government of Ceylon,", of the following:—

"Government of Ceylon made prior to October 1, 1963 ; " ;

(b) in sub-section (2) of that section, by the substitution, for the words "preceding any year of assessment", of the following:—

"preceding any year of assessment ending prior to April 1, 1965," ;

(c) by the insertion, immediately after sub-section (2) of that section, of the following new sub-sections :—

"(2A) Where the entirety of the assessable income of a wife or child for any year of assessment is aggregated with the assessable income of the head of the family of which such wife or child is a member, any approved investment made by such wife or child shall be deemed to be an approved investment made by the head of the family.

(2B) Where an individual has, or is deemed to have, made in any year of assessment two or more approved investments, the aggregate amount of such investments shall be treated as one approved investment for the purposes of this section. " ; and

(d) in sub-section (3) of that section, by the substitution, for the words "who has, in the year preceding any year of assessment, made", of the words "who has, or is deemed to have, made in the year preceding any year of assessment ending prior to April 1, 1965, ".

(2) The amendment made in section 69 of the principal Act by paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of this section shall be deemed to have come into force on October 1, 1963, and the amendments made in the aforesaid section 69 by paragraphs (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of this section shall be deemed to have come into force on the date of commencement of that Act.

31. (1) The following heading is hereby inserted immediately after section 69 of the principal Act:—

“ LL.—RELIEF IN CASES OF APPROVED SAVINGS.”.

(2) The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act immediately after the heading inserted therein by sub-section (1) of this section, and shall have effect as section 69A of that Act:—

 Deductions
from income tax for approved

69A. (1) In respect of any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1965—

(a) where an individual has made one or more approved savings and where the highest rate of income tax applicable to that individual is eighty per centum, he shall be entitled to a deduction from the income tax payable by him for that year of assessment of an aggregate sum consisting of—

(i) a sum equivalent to fifty per centum of the amount of the net approved saving, or if he has made more than one approved saving, the aggregate amount of such net approved savings, in respect of that year of assessment, or a sum equivalent to fifty per centum of the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at eighty per centum, whichever sum is less;

new heading and new section 69A in

(ii) if the amount or the aggregate amount of such net approved saving or savings exceeds the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at eighty per centum, a sum equivalent to thirty-three and one-third per centum of such excess or a sum equivalent to thirty-three and one-third per centum of the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at sixty-five per centum, whichever sum is less ; and

(iii) if the amount or the aggregate amount of such net approved saving or savings exceeds the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at eighty per centum and the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at sixty-five per centum, a sum equivalent to twenty-five per centum of such excess or a sum equivalent to two thousand five hundred rupees, whichever sum is less;

(b) where an individual has made one or more approved savings and where the highest rate of income tax applicable to that individual is sixty-five per centum, he shall be entitled to a deduction from the income tax payable by him for that year of assessment of an aggregate sum consisting of—

- (i) a sum equivalent to thirty-three and one-third per centum of the amount or the aggregate amount of such net approved saving or savings or a sum equivalent to thirty-three and one-third per centum of the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at sixty-five per centum, whichever sum is less; and
- (ii) if the amount or the aggregate amount of such net approved saving or savings exceeds the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at sixty-five per centum, a sum equivalent to the tax calculated at the effective rate on the amount of such excess or calculated at twenty-five per centum on the amount of such excess where the effective rate exceeds twenty-five per centum, and the amount of such excess on which the tax is calculated shall not exceed one-fourth of his assessable income for that year of assessment or ten thousand rupees, whichever is less; and
- (c) where an individual has made one or more approved savings and where the highest rate of income tax applicable to that individual does not exceed forty-five per centum, he shall be entitled to a deduction from the income tax payable by him for that year of assessment of a sum equivalent to the tax calculated at the effective rate on the amount or the aggregate amount of such net approved saving or savings or calculated at twenty-five per centum of such amount or aggregate amount where the effective rate exceeds twenty-five per centum, and the amount or aggregate amount on which the tax is calculated shall not exceed one-fourth of his assessable income for that year of assessment or ten thousand rupees, whichever is less.

(2) "Approved saving" for the purposes of sub-section (1) means—

(a) any payment of any premia on any such life insurance policy, or for the purchase of any such annuity, as is referred to in section 68, the amount of such payment being the excess over the amount of such premia on which the effective rate is calculated for the purposes of section 68,

(b) any money deposited in any special account in the Central Bank of Ceylon or in such other institution as may be approved for the purpose by Order of the Minister made on the recommendation of the Monetary Board of the Central Bank of Ceylon and published in the Gazette,

(c) any money invested in any security of the Government of Ceylon, other than money invested in Tax Reserve Certificates within the meaning of the Tax Reserve Certificates Act, No. 22 of 1957,

- (d) any money paid or payable as wealth tax for the year of assessment in respect of which a deduction is to be made under sub-section (1),
- (e) any repayment of a loan taken, or debt incurred, prior to the ninth day of August, 1965, for the purchase of any property, or the repayment of any part of such loan or debt,
- (f) any repayment of a loan which was taken prior to the ninth day of August, 1965, on the hypothecation of any property, or the repayment of any part of such loan, or
- (g) any approved investment within the meaning of section 69.

For the purposes of paragraph (g) of this sub-section, "approved investment" in section 69 means—

- (a) an investment in an approved project other than—
 - (i) an investment for the purpose of purchasing an existing investment, or
 - (ii) an investment for the purpose of purchasing shares in a company, being an investment so made after the expiry of six years commencing from the date of the first issue of shares of that company, or
 - (iii) an investment for the purpose of purchasing shares in a company which are not ordinary shares; or
- (b) an investment in an undertaking as is considered by the Minister of Finance to be essential for the economic progress of Ceylon and is declared by him by notice published in the Gazette to be an approved investment for the purposes of this section; or

(c) any other class of investment as is considered by the Minister of Finance to be essential for the economic progress of Ceylon and is declared by him by notice published in the Gazette to be an approved investment for the purposes of this section.

(3) Where any sum of money in an approved saving specified in paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) or paragraph (g) of sub-section (2) is withdrawn or realized by the individual, who made that saving, before the expiry of a period of one year after the date of the making of that saving, then that sum of money shall not be deemed to be an approved saving for the purposes of sub-section (2) and, accordingly, where any deduction from income tax was granted to that individual under sub-section (1) in respect of that approved saving, then in respect of that year of assessment in which such deduction was granted an additional assessment consisting of the amount of income tax to which that individual, or if that individual is a member of a family, the head of that family, would have been liable if such deduction had not been granted, shall notwithstanding anything in this Act, be made in respect of that individual or the head of that family, and the provisions of this Act relating to notice of assessment, appeal and other proceedings shall apply in relation to such additional assessment.

(4) Where an individual has made one approved saving, "net approved saving" means the amount of such approved saving, or where such individual has made more than one approved saving, "net approved savings" means the aggregate amount of such savings, after deducting therefrom any or all of the following:—

- (a) the proceeds of the sale of any property held by that individual on the thirty-first day of March, 1964;
- (b) any loan due and repaid to that individual if such loan was outstanding on the thirty-first day of March, 1964;
- (c) the proceeds of the sale of any property or the amount of any loan repaid if such property had been purchased or such loan had been given out of the proceeds of a sale referred to in paragraph (a) or out of any money repaid as a loan and referred to in paragraph (b);
- (d) the amount of any gift in cash received by that individual;
- (e) the amount realized by the sale of any property received by that individual on or after April 1, 1964, by way of gift or inheritance;
- (f) any sum received by that individual on the maturity, or upon the surrender, of a policy of life insurance;
- (g) the amount of any retiring gratuity or any sum in commutation of pension received by that individual or any sum paid from a provident fund to that individual on his retirement, or any sum paid to that individual as compensation for loss of office or employment, after deduction from such amount or sum any income tax payable thereon;
- (h) the amount of any approved saving withdrawn or realized and in respect of which a deduction had been made from the income tax payable by that individual in any preceding year of assessment, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Assessor that such amount had been utilized for the purpose of making any gift; or

- (i) the value of a prize won by that individual at a sweep or lottery or the amount of any other profits of a casual and non-recurring nature received by that individual.

(5) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Assessor that the whole or any part of the proceeds of the sale in respect of any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1965, of any property of the description specified in paragraph (a) or paragraph (e) of subsection (4), or the amount, sum or value or proceeds of the sale, as the case may be, referred to in paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) or paragraph (f) or paragraph (g) or paragraph (i) of that sub-section, was used by that individual for the purpose of—

- (a) making a gift; or
- (b) paying any arrears of tax which that individual was liable to pay for any year of assessment prior to the year of assessment commencing on April 1, 1965, or for any period prior to April 1, 1965, under any written law for the time being administered by the Commissioner; or
- (c) purchasing any property other than property referred to in paragraph (c) or paragraph (g) of sub-section (2); or
- (d) investing in the mortgage of any property; or

(e) constructing a residential house, then for that year of assessment, notwithstanding anything in sub-section (4), such part of the proceeds of the sale or amount, sum or value, as the case may be, shall not be deducted for the purpose of determining the amount or the aggregate amount of the net approved saving or savings of that individual for that year of assessment.

(6) Where the deductions for determining the net approved saving or savings of any individual for any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1965, exceed the amount or the aggregate amount of the approved saving or savings for that year of assessment, then such excess shall be deducted from the amount or the aggregate amount of the approved saving or savings of the succeeding year of assessment, and, where it cannot be so deducted, then from the amount or the aggregate amount of the approved saving or savings of the next succeeding year of assessment, and so on.

(7) Where in respect of any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1965, an individual is entitled to a deduction from the income tax payable in respect of that year of assessment under the provisions of section 68 and this section, the deductions from the income tax payable by that individual for that year of assessment for the purposes of that section and of subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a), sub-paraphraph (ii) of paragraph (b), or paragraph (c), of sub-section (1) of this section shall, notwithstanding anything in that section and sub-section (1) of this section, be so calculated as to secure that the amount on which the deduction is calculated for the purposes of section 68 and of the aforesaid sub-paragaphs and paragraph of sub-section (1) of this section shall not in the aggregate exceed one-fourth of the assessable income of that individual for that year of assessment or ten thousand rupees, whichever is less.

(8) Where, in respect of any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1965, an individual has made an approved investment within the meaning of section 69 and either where the amount of such approved investment exceeds the portion of his taxable income on which income tax is payable at eighty per centum or where income tax is not payable at eighty per centum on any portion of his taxable income, then such individual shall be entitled to a further deduction under this section of a sum equivalent to the amount of the relief from income tax to which he would be entitled if section 69 were applicable to him after deducting from such sum such portion of the deduction under this section as is attributable to the amount of that approved investment, the rate applicable for the determination of such portion of the deduction being the highest rate which will be applicable for the calculation of the deduction from income tax under this section in respect of that individual.

(9) In this section—

“ effective rate ” shall have the same meaning as in sub-section (3) of section 17; and “ property ” includes any interest in any movable or immovable property and does not include any motor vehicle kept for private use or household effects or other article of personal use.’.

Insertion of new section 111A in the principal Act.

45. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 111, and shall have effect as section 111A, of the principal Act :—

 Recovery of tax by vesting
immovable
property of
the Crown.

111A. (1) Where any tax is in default and the Commissioner is of opinion that the recovery of such tax or any part thereof by the means provided in section 110 or section 111 is impracticable or inexpedient, he may make an application by petition in writing to the District Court having jurisdiction in the district where the defaulter resides or in which any immovable property belonging to the defaulter and specified in such petition is situate for an order by that Court that such property shall vest in the Crown.

Every such petition shall specify—

- (a) the particulars of the tax in default;
- (b) the name or names and the address or addresses of the person or persons by whom the tax is payable ; and

(c) the particulars of immovable property to be vested in the Crown.

There shall be attached to every such petition a certificate under the hand of the Commissioner that the amount of the tax specified in the petition is due from the defaulter.

(2) Whenever the Commissioner makes an application to a District Court under this section, he shall forthwith issue to the defaulter, whether resident or non-resident, a notification thereof by personal service, registered letter sent through the post or telegraph, but the non-receipt of such notification by the defaulter shall not invalidate proceedings under this section.

(3) Within ten days after the date on which an application is made to a District Court by the Commissioner under sub-section (1), the Commissioner shall cause to be published in the Gazette a notice setting out the petition made in respect of such application.

(4) No person shall, on or after the date on which a notification was issued to a defaulter under sub-section (2) of an application made by petition in writing to a District Court for the vesting of any property, alienate to any other person—

(a) any property which is specified in that petition; or

(b) any rights in respect of that property,

and any alienation of that property or those rights to any other person shall be null and void:

Provided that the preceding provisions of this sub-section shall not be deemed to apply to any property or portions of any property which is or are not vested under this section in the Crown by an order of the District Court.

In this sub-section, "alienate", when used with reference to any immovable property or rights in respect of that property, includes an alienation, or a lease, hypothecation, transfer or disposal in any manner whatsoever of such property or such rights, and "alienation" shall be construed accordingly.

(5) Any person who wishes to prefer a claim to any immovable property in respect of which a notice under sub-section (3) has been published in the Gazette may, not later than fourteen days after the date of publication of such notice, apply by petition in writing to the District Court, to which the application was made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1), to have such property declared as not liable to vesting in the Crown. Every such petition shall set out the right, title or interest of the petitioner to or in such property.

(6) The District Court to which the application was made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall, after the expiry of the period of fourteen days referred to in sub-section (5), proceed in a summary manner to investigate and determine such claims as have been made in respect of the immovable property proposed to be vested in the Crown by such application. At the end of the investigation of a claim—

(a) if the District Court is satisfied that the claimant is entitled to the ownership of the immovable property or any portion thereof, the Court shall make order accordingly, and

(b) if the Court is satisfied that the claimant has not established his claim to that property or that he has established his claim only to a portion thereof, the Court shall make order vesting in the Crown that property or that portion thereof in respect of which the claimant has not established ownership, and the Court shall make such order as to costs as the Court shall deem just.

(7) If at the expiry of fourteen days referred to in sub-section (5), no claim has been made by any person under that sub-section, the Court shall make order that the immovable property specified in the application made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall vest in the Crown.

(8) Where any immovable property is vested in the Crown under this section by an order of the District Court, such property shall vest in the Crown subject to such encumbrances and charges as were existing on the date on which the application was made by the Commissioner.

(9) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be deemed to empower the District Court to which an application is made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) to call in question or examine in any investigation under this section the correctness of any statement relating to particulars of the tax in default in such application or in the certificate referred to in that sub-section or to postpone or defer such investigation by reason only of the fact that an appeal is pending against the assessment by which the tax which is in default was charged.

(10) An order under this section vesting in the Crown any immovable property of a defaulter may, upon an application made by the Commissioner, be revoked by the District Court by which such order was made.

(11) No application for the revocation of an order vesting in the Crown any immovable property of a defaulter shall be made to the District Court by the Commissioner except in any of the following cases:—

(a) Where the assessment of the tax in default is annulled upon the final determination of an appeal made under Chapter XII of this Act against such assessment.

(b) Where the tax which the defaulter is liable to pay after the final determination of any appeal made under Chapter XII of this Act is paid by him within forty days after such final determination or within six months after the date of the order vesting such immovable property in the Crown, whichever is the later.

(c) Where the amount of the tax in default is paid, when no appeal under Chapter XII of this Act is made by him against the assessment of the tax, by the defaulter within six months after the date on which the order vesting in the Crown such immovable property was made.

(12) Where an order under this section vesting in the Crown any immovable property of any person is revoked under sub-section (10), such person shall not be entitled to claim any compensation for any loss or damage which he may have suffered as a result of, or in consequence of, the order vesting such immovable property in the Crown having been made; and no action against the Crown for compensation for any such loss or damage shall be entertained by any court.

(13) At any time after any immovable property is vested in the Crown under the provisions of this section, such time being not less than six months after the date of vesting, the Commissioner shall cause the market value of such property to be determined by the Chief Valuer of the Government or by a Valuer of the Valuation Department who is authorized in that behalf by the Chief Valuer of the Government.

(14) Where the market value of any immovable property vested in the Crown by an order of the District Court under this section is more than the amount of the tax which the defaulter has to pay, the Commissioner, in his discretion, may—

- (i) with the approval of the Secretary to the Treasury, refund to the defaulter the amount by which the market value of that property exceeds the tax in default, or
- (ii) cause such property to be sold.

(15) Every sale under this section of any immovable property shall be—

- (a) on a date not earlier than six months after the date of the order vesting such property in the Crown;
- (b) by public auction;
- (c) after notice of such sale is given at least fourteen days before the date fixed for such sale by advertisement published in the Gazette and in one or more newspapers.

(16) The sum realized by the sale of any immovable property under this section shall be applied in the following order:—

- (i) in satisfaction of the amount payable to any person who has a mortgage or charge on such immovable property and whose claim to such mortgage or charge has been proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner,
- (ii) in payment of the costs and charges of maintaining and selling the immovable property, and
- (iii) in satisfaction of the tax in default.

and any balance shall be paid to the defaulter.

(17) (a) Where an order is made by the District Court vesting any immovable property in the Crown, the Court may in such order or in any subsequent order direct that any person authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner shall take possession of such property for and on behalf of the Crown.

(b) Where the person directed under this sub-section to take possession of any immovable property is unable or apprehends that he will be unable to take possession of that property because of any obstruction or resistance which has been or is likely to be offered, such person shall, on his making an application in that behalf to the District Court which directed him to take possession of such property, be entitled to an order of that Court directing the Fiscal to deliver possession of that property to him for and on behalf of the Crown.

(c) Where an order under paragraph (b) of this sub-section is issued to the Fiscal by a District Court, he shall forthwith execute that order and shall in writing report to that Court the manner in which that order was executed.

(d) For the purpose of executing an order under paragraph (b) of this sub-section, the Fiscal or any person acting under his direction may use such force as may be necessary to enter the property to which that order relates and to eject any person in occupation of that property and to deliver possession of that property to the person who is authorized to take possession of that property for and on behalf of the Crown.

(18) Where an order under this section vesting in the Crown any immovable property of any person is revoked under sub-section (10), the Crown shall be liable to account to such person for the income derived from such property during the period for which such property was vested in the Crown.

and to pay such income to such person less the expenses incurred in maintaining such property during that period.

(19) Where any immovable property is sold under this section, the Commissioner shall in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty be entitled to execute the instrument of transfer of such property to the purchaser.

(20) Any person who is aggrieved by an order of the District Court under subsection (6) may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court, and the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code relating to appeals from the District Court to the Supreme Court shall apply in relation to such appeal.

(21) In this section—

“immovable property” means any land (other than a land which is subject to a fideicommissum, life interest or trust) and includes things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything attached to the earth; and

(C) by the insertion, immediately after the renumbered sub-section (1), of the following new sub-section:—

‘(2) The expression “For the purposes of this Act” or “appointed under this Act”, in any context in which that expression occurs relating to the Commissioner of Inland Revenue or any Deputy Commissioner of Inland Revenue or any Assistant Commissioner of Inland Revenue or any Assessor of Inland Revenue or any abbreviation used to denote any such officer, means the person for the time being holding the office of Commissioner of Inland Revenue, Deputy Commissioner of

Inland Revenue, Assistant Commissioner of Inland Revenue or Assessor of Inland Revenue, as the case may be.'

(2) The amendments made in the principal Act by paragraph (A), by sub-paragraphs (a), (b) and (f) of paragraph (B), and by paragraph (C), of sub-section (1) of this section shall be deemed to have come into force on the date of commencement of that Act and the amendments made in the principal Act by sub-paragraphs (d) and (e) of paragraph (B) of sub-section (1) of this section shall apply in respect of every year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1965.

52. Section 130 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendment of section 180 of
the principal
Act.

(1) in sub-section (4) of that section—

(A) by the relettering of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of that sub-section as paragraphs (g), (h) and (i), respectively;

(B) by the insertion, immediately before the relettered paragraph (g) of that sub-section, of the following new paragraphs:—

'(a) section 2 of that Ordinance is hereby amended in the definition of "authorized representative", in paragraph (a) of that definition, in sub-paragraph (ii) of that paragraph, by the substitution, for the word "proctor,", of the words "proctor or a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ceylon.

(b) section 6A of that Ordinance, inserted therein by Act No. 13 of 1959, is hereby amended, by the insertion, immediately after sub-section (2) of that section, of the following new sub-section:—

"(2A) Where a capital gain or a capital loss arises, in the year of assessment commencing on April 1, 1962, from the change of ownership of any property, occurring either on the death of the owner or on his ceasing to be resident in Ceylon, such capital gain or capital loss shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding provisions of this section, be deemed to be his capital gain or capital loss, as the case may be, arising in the year preceding that year of assessment.”;

(c) section 11 of that Ordinance, as amended by Act No. 13 of 1959, and therein referred to as section 9, is hereby amended as follows:—

- (1) in sub-section (1E) of that section, by the substitution, for the words “ repair of any plant, ”, of the words “ repair or renewal of any plant, ”, and
- (2) in sub-section (1M) of that section—

(i) in paragraph (c) of that sub-section, by the substitution, for the words “ in constructing ”, of the words “ in constructing or renewing ”, and

(ii) in paragraph (d) of that sub-section by the substitution, for all the words and figures from “ in constructing any ” to “ for the purposes of an approved project, ”, of the following:—

“ in constructing or renewing any such building referred to in subparagraph (ii) or subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (e) of sub-section (1) as is to be used for the purposes of an approved project:

Provided that no person shall be entitled to any deduction under paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) of this sub-section for the renewal of any building if such person has been allowed to deduct the expenditure incurred in such renewal under sub-section (1j).";

(d) section 12 of that Ordinance, as amended by Act No. 10 of 1962, is hereby amended in sub-section (1) of that section, in paragraph (h) of that sub-section, by the substitution for the words "by way of United Kingdom income tax, or super tax or surtax (other than the excess of any such United Kingdom income tax, or super tax or surtax over such maximum amount)", of the words "by way of income tax or super tax or surtax or any other tax of a similar character in any country with which arrangements for the avoidance of double taxation have been made by the Government of Ceylon (other than the excess of any such income tax, or super tax or surtax or other tax of a similar character, over such maximum amount)";

(e) section 15 of that Ordinance, as amended by Act No. 13 of 1959, and therein referred to as section 13, is hereby further amended as follows:—

(1) in sub-section (1) of that section, in paragraph (d) of that sub-section:—

(i) by the omission of all the words from "and which has" to the end of that paragraph, and

(ii) by the insertion, at the end of that paragraph, of the following:

"For the purposes of the computation of the loss for the first year of assessment in respect of which any corporation referred to in section 8 or any undertaking referred to in section 9 becomes liable to income tax, such loss shall be the amount outstanding at the end of the period of six years during which its profits and income are not liable to tax under section 8 or section 9, as the case may be, after deduction from the profits and income of any succeeding year of assessment during such period of any loss incurred in the immediately preceding year of assessment or the aggregate of the losses incurred in more than one year of assessment during such period. Where the entirety or any portion of the amount of the losses of such corporation or undertaking cannot be deducted from the statutory income of the first year of assessment in respect of which such corporation or undertaking becomes liable to income tax, such entirety or portion shall be deducted from the statutory income of the next succeeding year of assessment, and so far as it cannot be so deducted, then from the statutory income of the next year of assessment, and so on. ";

(2) in sub-section (3) of that section, in the proviso to that sub-section—

(i) in paragraph (i) of that proviso, for the words "amount of such loss;", of the words "amount of such loss; and",

(ii) in paragraph (ii) of that proviso, for the words "and so on; and", of the words "and so on." ; and

(iii) by the omission of paragraph (iii) of that proviso;

(f) by the insertion, immediately after section 43 of that Ordinance, of the following new section which shall have effect as section 43A of that Ordinance:—

*Ascertaintment of profits of the Insurance Corporation of Ceylon from the business of life
insurance.*

43A. (1) The profits of the Insurance Corporation of Ceylon from the business of life insurance shall be the investment income of the Life Insurance Fund less the management expenses (including commission) attributable to that business.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "investment income of the Life Insurance Fund" means such part of the income of the Insurance Corporation of Ceylon from investments as appears fairly attributable to the life insurance business of such Corporation.' ;

(C) by the insertion, immediately after the relettered paragraph (i), of the following new paragraphs:—

' (j) section 82 of that Ordinance is hereby amended by the substitution, for the words "together with", of the word "and" ;

(k) section 84 of that Ordinance is hereby amended, in sub-section (2) of that section, by the substitution, in paragraph (b) of that sub-section for all the words from "and any property so seized", to the end of that paragraph, of the following:—

" and where the property so seized is currency, such currency shall be applied in satisfaction of the tax in default and where the property so seized is not currency, such property shall be kept for five days at the costs and charges of the defaulter. If the defaulter does not pay the tax in default together with costs and charges within the said five days, the Government Agent, Assistant Government Agent, Fiscal, Deputy Fiscal or the tax collector shall cause such property to be sold by public auction or, where such property is a negotiable instrument or a share in any corporation or public company, to be sold through a broker at the market rate of the day." ; and

(l) by the insertion, immediately after section 85 of that Ordinance, of the following new section which shall have effect as section 85A of that Ordinance:—

Recovery of tax by vesting
immovable
property of defaulter in the Crown.

85A. (1) Where any tax is in default and the Commissioner is of opinion that the recovery of such tax or any part thereof by the means provided in section 84 or section 85 is impracticable or inexpedient, he may make an application by petition in writing to the District Court having jurisdiction in the district where the defaulter resides or in which any immovable property belonging to the defaulter and specified in such petition is situate for an order by that Court that such property shall vest in the Crown.

Every such petition shall specify—

(a) the particulars of the tax in default;

(b) the name or names and the address or addresses of the person or persons by whom the tax is payable, and

(c) the particulars of immovable property to be vested in the Crown.

There shall be attached to every such petition a certificate under the hand of the Commissioner that the amount of the tax specified in the petition is due from the defaulter.

(2) Whenever the Commissioner makes an application to a District Court under this section, he shall forthwith issue to the defaulter, whether resident or non-resident, a notification thereof by personal service, registered letter sent through the post or telegraph, but the non-receipt of such notification by the defaulter shall not invalidate proceedings under this section.

(3) Within ten days after the date on which an application is made to a District Court by the Commissioner under sub-section (1), the Commissioner shall cause to be published in the Gazette a notice setting out the petition made in respect of such application.

(4) No person shall, on or after the date on which a notification was issued to a defaulter under sub-section (2) of an application made by petition in writing to a District Court for the vesting of any property, alienate to any other person—

(a) any property which is specified in that petition; or

(b) any rights in respect of that property,

and any alienation of that property or those rights to any other person shall be null and void:

Provided that the preceding provisions of this sub-section shall not be deemed to apply to any property or portions of any property which is or are not vested under this section in the Crown by an order of the District Court.

alienation, or a lease, hypothecation, transfer or disposal in any manner whatsoever of such property or such rights, and "alienation" shall be construed accordingly.

(5) Any person who wishes to prefer a claim to any immovable property in respect of which a notice under sub-section (3) has been published in the Gazette may, not later than fourteen days after the date of publication of such notice, apply by petition in writing to the District Court, to which the application was made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1), to have such property declared as not liable to vesting in the Crown. Every such petition shall set out the right, title or interest of the petitioner to or in such property.

(6) The District Court to which the application was made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall, after the expiry of the period of fourteen days referred to in sub-section (5), proceed in a summary manner to investigate and determine such claims as have been made in respect of the immovable property proposed to be vested in the Crown by such application. At the end of the investigation of a claim—

(a) if the District Court is satisfied that the claimant is entitled to the ownership of the immovable property or any portion thereof, the Court shall make order accordingly, and

(b) if the Court is satisfied that the claimant has not established his claim to that property or that he has established his claim only to a portion thereof, the Court shall make order vesting in the Crown that property or that portion thereof in respect of which the claimant has not established ownership,

and the Court shall make such order as to costs as the Court shall deem just.

(7) If at the expiry of fourteen days referred to in sub-section (5), no claim has been made by any person under that sub-section, the Court shall make order that the immovable property specified in the application made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall vest in the Crown.

(8) Where any immovable property is vested in the Crown under this section by an order of the District Court, such property shall vest in the Crown subject to such encumbrances and charges as were existing on the date on which the application was made by the Commissioner.

(9) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be deemed to empower the District Court to which an application is made by the Commissioner under sub-section (1)

to call in question or examine in any investigation under this section the correctness of any statement relating to particulars of the tax in default in such application or in the certificate referred to in that sub-section or to postpone or defer such investigation by reason only of the fact that an appeal is pending against the assessment by which the tax which is in default was charged.

(10) An order under this section vesting in the Crown any immovable property of a defaulter may, upon an application made by the Commissioner, be revoked by the District Court by which such order was made.

(11) No application for the revocation of an order vesting in the Crown any immovable property of a defaulter shall be made to the District Court by the Commissioner except in any of the following cases:—

(a) Where the assessment of the tax in default is annulled upon the final determination of an appeal made under Chapter XI of this Ordinance against such assessment.

(b) Where the tax which the defaulter is liable to pay after the final determination of any appeal made under Chapter XI of this Ordinance is paid by him within forty days after such final determination or within six months after the date of the order vesting such immovable property in the Crown, whichever is the later.

(c) Where the amount of tax in default is paid, when no appeal under Chapter XI of this Ordinance is made by him against the assessment of the tax, by the defaulter within six months after the date on which the order vesting in the Crown such immovable property was made.

(12) Where an order under this section vesting in the Crown any immovable property of any person is revoked under sub-section (10), such person shall not be entitled to claim any compensation for any loss or damage which he may have suffered as a result of, or in consequence of, the order vesting such immovable property in the Crown having been made; and no action against the Crown for compensation for any such loss or damage shall be entertained by any court.

(13) At any time after any immovable property is vested in the Crown under the provisions of this section, such time being not less than six months after the date of vesting, the Commissioner shall cause the market value of such property to be determined by the Chief Valuer of the Government or by a Valuer of the Valuation Department who is authorized in that behalf by the Chief Valuer of the Government.

(14) Where the market value of any immovable property vested in the Crown by an order of the District Court under this section is more than the amount of the tax which the defaulter has to pay, the Commissioner, in his discretion may—

(i) with the approval of the Secretary to the Treasury, refund to the defaulter the amount by which the market value of that property exceeds the tax in default, or

(ii) cause such property to be sold.

(15) Every sale under this section of any immovable property shall be—

(a) on a date not earlier than six months after the date of the order vesting such property in the Crown,

(b) by public auction,

(c) after notice of such sale is given at least fourteen days before the date fixed for such sale by advertisement published in the Gazette and in one or more newspapers.

(16) The sum realized by the sale of any immovable property under this section shall be applied in the following order:—

- (i) in satisfaction of the amount payable to any person who has a mortgage or charge on such immovable property and whose claim to such mortgage or charge has been proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner,
- (ii) in payment of the costs and charges of maintaining and selling the immovable property, and
- (iii) in satisfaction of the tax in default,

and any balance shall be paid to the defaulter.

(17) (a) Where an order is made by the District Court vesting any immovable property in the Crown, the Court may in such order or in any subsequent order direct that any person authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner shall take possession of such property for and on behalf of the Crown.

(b) Where the person directed under this sub-section to take possession of any immovable property is unable or apprehends that he will be unable to take possession of that property because of any obstruction or resistance which has been or is likely to be offered, such person shall, on his making an application in that behalf to the District Court which directed him to take possession of such property, be entitled to an order of that Court directing the Fiscal to deliver possession of that property to him for and on behalf of the Crown.

(c) Where an order under paragraph (b) of this subsection is issued to the Fiscal by a District Court, he shall forthwith execute that order and shall in writing report to that Court the manner in which that order was executed.

(d) For the purpose of executing an order under paragraph (b) of this subsection, the Fiscal or any person acting under his direction may use such force as may be necessary to enter the property to which that order relates and to eject any person in occupation of that property and to deliver possession of that property to the person who is authorized to take possession of that property for and on behalf of the Crown.

(18) Where an order under this section vesting in the Crown any immovable property of any person is revoked under sub-section (10), the Crown shall be liable to account to such person for the income derived from such property during the period for which such property was vested in the Crown and to pay such income to such person less the expenses incurred in maintaining such property during that period.

(19) Where any immovable property is sold under this section, the Commissioner shall in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty be entitled to execute the instrument of transfer of such property to the purchaser.

(20) Any person who is aggrieved by an order of the District Court under sub-section (6) may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court, and the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code relating to appeals from the District Court to the Supreme Court shall apply in relation to such appeal.

(21) In this section—
“immovable property” means any land (other than a land which is subject to a fideicommissum, life interest or trust) and includes things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything attached to the earth: and

(2) in sub-section (5) of that section, by the substitution, for all the words, letters and figures from “by paragraphs (a) and (b)” to “April 1, 1959:”, of the following:—

“by paragraph (b) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into operation on April 1, 1962, the amendments made to that Ordinance by paragraph (c) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into operation on April 1, 1957, the amendments made to that Ordinance by sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph (e) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into force on May 15, 1959, the amendments made to that Ordinance by sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph (e) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into operation on April 1, 1958, the amendments made to that Ordinance by paragraph (f) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into operation on April 1, 1962, the amendments made to that Ordinance by paragraphs (g) and (h) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into operation on April 1, 1958, the amendment made to that Ordinance by sub-paragraph (iv) of paragraph (i) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into operation on April 1, 1959, and the amendments made to that Ordinance by paragraph (j) of sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have come into operation on February 2, 1956:”.

certain enactments.*

56. (1) From the date of commencement of the principal Act, the enactments set out in each entry in column I of the First Schedule to this Act shall be deemed to have had, and to have, effect subject to the amendments set out in the corresponding entry in column II of that Schedule.

(2) The Monetary Law Act is hereby amended by the insertion, immediately after section 5, of the following new section:—

"Powers of the Central Bank and the Monetary Board in relation to section 69A of the Inland
Revenue Act,
No. 4 of

5A. (1) For the purposes of section 69A of the Inland Revenue Act, No. 4 of 1963, the Central Bank may open, maintain and manage special deposit accounts.

(2) Where an institution is approved by the Minister of Finance by Order made under paragraph (b) of sub-section (2) of section 69A of the Inland Revenue Act, the Monetary Board may determine the terms and conditions subject to which that institution may open, maintain and manage special deposit accounts for the purposes of that section.”.

57. (1) The sections of written law specified in Part I of the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed.

Repeal of certain provisions of written law specified in Second Schedule to this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the aforesaid sections in respect of the three years of assessment preceding the year of assessment commencing on April 1, 1965, income tax at the rate chargeable in respect of resident companies shall be deemed to have been payable under the Income Tax Ordinance or the principal Act, as the case may be, by each of the bodies specified in Part II of the Second Schedule to this Act:

Provided however that, where such body was established in the year of assessment commencing on April 1, 1962, the income tax shall be deemed to have been payable by such body for the next succeeding year of assessment.

Provisions relating to the making of declarations of the profits and income of persons who have evaded the payment of income tax or who have failed to disclose profits and income and to the levy of a tax on such profits and income.

58. (1) (a) The succeeding provisions of this section shall apply to any person who under the law for the time being applicable to income tax was liable to pay such tax for any year of assessment commencing on or before April 1, 1965, and who has not made a return of income under the provisions of such law for any such year of assessment or who has failed to disclose any profits or income in any return of income made under the provisions of such law for any such year of assessment:

Provided that such provisions shall have no application to a person in respect of the profits or income liable to income tax for the year of assessment commencing on April 1, 1965, if either the failure to disclose fully his profits or income or the failure to make a return of income was solely in respect of that year of assessment.

(b) Every person referred to in paragraph (a) of this sub-section shall hereafter in this section be referred to as the "person to whom this section applies".

(2) (a) Where any person to whom this section applies has in his possession any profits or income, or where such person has utilized any profits or income in the acquisition of any articles of value or for his personal expenditure, such profits or income being the profits or income of any one year, or the accumulated profits or income of more than one year, in respect of which such person has not made any return of income or which such person has failed to disclose in the return or returns of income made under the law for the time being applicable to income tax—

- (i) such person, or
- (ii) if such person is a company or a body of persons, the secretary, manager or other principal officer of such company or body of persons, or
- (iii) if such person is a partnership, the precedent partner of such partnership, may, within two months after the commencement of this Act, make a declaration in writing to the Commissioner.

(b) Every declaration under paragraph (a) of this sub-section shall set out—

- (i) the full name and address of the person making the declaration,
- (ii) the amount of the profits and income referred to in paragraph (a) of this sub-section, and
- (iii) if such profits or income or any part thereof have or has been invested in the acquisition of articles of value, the description and value of such articles:

Provided that such declaration shall not include any such profits or income or any articles of value acquired by such profits or income as have or has been found out by the Assessor in the course of his investigations under the law relating to income tax for the time being.

(3) (a) Where any person to whom this section applies makes a declaration under sub-section (2), the Commissioner, if he is satisfied that the profits and income specified in such declaration or the profits or income invested in the acquisition of articles of value were or was profits or income in respect of which such person should have paid income tax but had not done so, may, by notice in writing served personally on such person or sent by registered letter through the post to such person, require, wherever he considers it necessary so to do, such person to surrender to the Commissioner or to any officer authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner all or any part of the property specified in such declaration.

(b) Any person to whom this section applies shall, upon compliance with the requirements of a notice served on or sent to that person by the Commissioner, be entitled to a receipt for the property surrendered by that person to the Commissioner or officer authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner.

(4) (a) Upon receipt of a declaration made under sub-section (2) by any person to whom this section applies or upon surrender by any such person of all or any part of the property specified in such declaration, the Commissioner shall, by notice in writing served personally on such person or sent by registered letter through the post to such person, require such person to pay as tax to the Commissioner, within such time as may be specified in the notice, an amount equal to one-third the total value of the property specified in such declaration.

(b) In the determination of the amount which a person to whom this section applies is required to pay as tax, the Commissioner is not bound to accept the valuation of the articles of value specified in the declaration made by such person and he may increase or decrease such valuation if he considers it reasonable so to do.

(c) A person to whom this section applies may, in lieu of paying tax as required by the Commissioner, authorize the Commissioner to appropriate such portion of the property (other than a debt due to such person) specified in the declaration made under sub-section (2) by such person or surrendered by such person as is equivalent in value to the amount of the tax, and upon such appropriation tax shall be deemed to have been paid by such person.

(5) Where any person to whom this section applies has surrendered any property in compliance with the provisions of sub-section (3) and where such person pays tax to the Commissioner as required by sub-section (4) or authorizes him to appropriate a portion of such property in lieu of payment of tax, the Commissioner shall—

(a) where such tax is paid, permit such person to resume possession of the property surrendered by such person,

(b) where a portion of the property surrendered by such person is appropriated by him in lieu of tax, permit such person to resume possession of the remaining property surrendered by such person, and

- (c) issue to such person a certificate specifying—
- (i) the aggregate value of the property declared by such person or as determined by the Commissioner under paragraph (b) of sub-section (4), as the case may be, and
 - (ii) the amount recovered as tax from such person.

(6) Where tax is paid or deemed to have been paid as required by sub-section (4) by any person to whom this section applies, such person shall not be liable—

- (a) to a prosecution for any offence under any of the sections of written law referred to in the Third Schedule to this Act in respect of the profits or income specified in the declaration made by such person under sub-section (2) and the profits or income invested in the acquisition of articles of value specified in such declaration, and
- (b) to pay for any year of assessment commencing on or before April 1, 1965, income tax under the law for the time being applicable to income tax in respect of such profits or income.

(7) Any articles of value appropriated by the Commissioner in lieu of tax under paragraph (c) of sub-section (4) shall be sold by public auction by any person appointed for that purpose by the Commissioner, and the sum realized by the sale shall, after payment of the sale charges, be applied in satisfaction of the tax.

(8) All sums paid or deemed to have been paid to the Commissioner by way of tax under this section shall be credited by the Commissioner to the Consolidated Fund of Ceylon.

(9) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be construed or be deemed to be construed as authorizing the revision of any assessment made prior to the date of commencement of this Act under the provisions of the Income Tax Ordinance or the principal Act or any other matter which has become final and conclusive.

(10) The provisions of section 124 of the principal Act shall apply as if such provisions were provisions of this section and refer to this section instead of to the principal Act.

(11) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires—

“articles of value” mean gold, jewellery, bullion, precious stones and any other movable articles of value, and shall be deemed to include the value of any undisclosed stock-in-trade and the amount of any undisclosed debts;

“Assessor” shall have the same meaning as in the principal Act;

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Inland Revenue and includes a Deputy Commissioner, and an Assistant Commissioner specially authorized by the Commissioner to act on behalf of the Commissioner;

“precedent partner” shall have the same meaning as in the principal Act;

“profits” and “income” shall have the same meanings as in section 3 of the principal Act;

“year of assessment” shall have the same meaning as in the Income Tax Ordinance and in the principal Act.
